Bone-Chilling Cold Wave Hits Marin, Snowflakes Are Few

Still Some White Stuff On Mt. Tam

Marinites' teeth chattered today in a cold snap that brought light snow to the top of Mount Tamalpais yesterday, covered puddles with ice, and was accompanied by frigid wind that caused at least one boat sinking.

Marincaught only the edge of the snowfall. In San Francisco and south on the peninsula, snow covered hills and valleys with depths up to three inches — the heaviest fall in 32 years.

Continued clear weather was forecast for tomorrow here, but with minimum temperatures somewhat above those of yesterday and today.

STILL SOME AROUND

Snow on Tamalpais started at 4:30 p.m. Saturday at the 666th Radar Squadron, according to A/3c Tom Blanch. Spots remained through yesterday and Blanch said this morning that "there's still some around."

Light snowfall in Belvedere Saturday was reported by Stephen A. Garin of 29 Belvedere Avenue. He said that around 3 p.m. enough fell on his deck to remain for two or three minutes. Belvedere's low temperature early today was 30 degrees.

Long icicles were hanging this morning in the north end of the Waldo Tunnel of Highway 101, over its northbound lane. Icicles were also reported in the blocked railroad tunnel in San Rafael.

ICE ON VEHICLE

Belvedere Police Officer Paul Weichel reported that when he tried to wash his patrol car early today the water formed a thin skin of ice over the vehicle.

Mill Valley, with overnight temperature as low as 29 degrees, had many automobile radiators prudently blanket-covered as safeguard against frost.

In Sausalito, high wind from the northeast caused many boats to break loose. A 40-foot power cruiser belonging to Dr. M. L. Strong of San Francisco sank in Marinship Yacht Harbor. Four or five other Marinship boats broke lines and suffered minor damage. At Clipper Yacht Harbor, about a dozen boats broke their lines, according to co-owner Shirley Morgan.

Among low temperatures early today were 31 degrees in San Rafael, 28 in Santa Venetia and 27 in Novato, where a low of 26 was reported early yesterday. The Chevy Chase district of Larkspur had low readings of 26 yesterday and 28 today. The temperature there did not rise above 36 throughout yesterday, reported J. L. Niebauer, volunteer weather observer.

Terror Bomb Hits French Foreign Office

PARIS (UPI)—Terrorists set off a plastic bomb in a small truck parked in the courtyard entrance of the French Foreign Ministry today in the latest act of violence over Algeria that has rocked France for months.

Reports said at least one person was killed and 15 others injured in the blast of the plastic bomb, the trade mark of the right wing extremists who oppose freedom for Algeria.

The explosion came at 4:30 p.m. (10:30 a.m. EST) on a day in which the illegal Secret Army Organization (OAS) ordered a protest strike in Algeria against the killing of a young OAS adherent last Friday. An hour and a half earlier kidnapers believed to be OAS men seized a Gaulist member of parliament from his home in suburban Paris, only to be captured by police later in the day. The Gaulist deputy was freed unharmed.

The plastic bomb blast wrecked a small delivery truck used by the foreign office for carrying diplomatic mail and bags to and from the Quai d'Orsay. First reports said the vehicle belonged to a Tunisian diplomat, but this was denied by the Tunisian Consulate.

The bomb blew out a number of windows in the Foreign Ministry building and the injured were believed cut by flying glass and masonry fragments.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Thieves Take $7,800 Worth Of Jewels At Ross Home

The $7,800 daylight jewel burglary of a hillside home in Ross came to light today.

Police Chief Joseph Regoni said the burglary, from the home of I. Wayland Bombright Jr. on Macon Grade, resembled the recent $98,000 burglary of the Joseph C. Hickingbotham Jr. home in San Rafael, and two burglaries last year of the Dorman Pichel home in Ross, in the most recent of which $3,500 worth of loot was taken on Dec. 6.

"It was a professional job," declared Chief Regoni.

The theft occurred last Wednesday. Regoni said he had made no announcement of it at request of the Bonbrights, but had put out an all-points police teletype bulletin listing the loot.

The Bonbrights left home about 10:15 a.m. last Wednesday and returned at 3:25 p.m. to find the house had been ransacked, Chief Regoni said. Entry had been made by prying up a window.

"There were no footprints inside," the chief reported. "I believe there were two men, and one boosted the other through the window. The one inside must have been barefoot or in stockinged feet."

The burglar donned a pair of Mrs. Bonbright's gloves to avoid leaving fingerprints, Chief Regoni said. They were found just outside the opened window.

The jewelry, all of which was insured, included a pair of French enameld earrings, a 14-k. gold link bracelet, platinum-opal-ruby pin with 15 diamonds and 15 rubies, gold-platinum-pearl-diamond brooch, diamond watch, cultured pearl bracelet, set of sterling silver knives, silver hand mirror with matching comb, oriental pearl and black enamel-onyx bracelet and oriental stickpin.

Also stolen were a portable radio, two eight-day gold clocks, a French cigarette lighter, a Polaroid camera, a .32-caliber Colt automatic revolver and a .38-caliber police revolver.

Famous Last Words: It Never Snows Here!

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Wintry blasts of wind whipped unpredicted snow across Northern and Central California Sunday and today brought snow flurries to Southern California, including Pasadena and Hollywood.

San Joaquin Valley had its heaviest snowfall in more than 30 years, accompanied by ice and sub-freezing temperatures. In the southern part of the valley many schools were closed and mountain passes were blockaded. Snow still was falling this morning in Fresno but only lightly.

The Highway Patrol reported northbound traffic on U.S. 99, north of Los Angeles, was held up this morning because of snow and stalled vehicles.

Near Sacramento, inmates of Folsom State Prison were put to shoveling snow.

On the Monterey Peninsula, heavy snow forced a delay until today in the playoff of the Crosby $50,000 golf tournament.

Marysville reported 2 inches of snow, the first measurable amount there in more than 15 years. The low there was 15 degrees.

Snow fell in many parts of the San Francisco Bay Area, to the south along California's central coast region, and to the east where the Sierra was blanketed in white.

But in San Francisco, the city of hills where the last measurable snow fell 30 years ago, the event brought reaction that might astound folks in the Midwest and East.

Telephone lines throughout the area were jammed by people telephoning each other:

"It's snowing here. Is it snowing at your place?"

Thousands of children who had seen snow on television and in movies experienced it for the first time and loved it.

Fire Districts Consolidation Vote Tomorrow

Homestead, Tamalpais Valley and Almonte voters go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether Homestead and Tamalpais Valley fire protection districts should be consolidated.

They will also vote on five fire commissioners for the district, to be called Tamalpais Fire Protection District, should the merger pass.

Six are running for the five seats.

Charles O. Woodworth and Carl H. Modell, present Homestead commissioners, will run from Homestead.

TAM COMMISSIONERS

Morris Batz, Raymond J. Massagli and Donald J. Rushton, Tamalpais Valley commissioners, will represent their area. Donald J. Taylor, also a Tamalpais Valley commissioner, who resides in Almonte, is running.

A seventh man, Joseph J. Brezina, Tamalpais Valley commissioner, is listed on the ballot but is not running, having withdrawn for business reasons.

Should merger be effected, it would be the first of two fire district mergers in California, according to Deputy Council Robert A. Smallman.

SEVEN REASONS

Proponents list these seven advantages of a merger: (1) increased protection with more paid firemen available for duty in both districts; (2) better communications; (3) fire calls would be answered at both fire stations and radio contact maintained between stations; (4) insurance rates would probably be reduced by 20 to 30 per cent as a result of increased efficiency; (5) the paid chief would administer the department and furnish fire fighting and training; (6) paid firemen (in addition to volunteers in each area) would be on duty at both firehouses at all times, ensuring immediate response; (7) avoidance of costly duplication of equipment.

In addition, it is estimated the tax rate, now 86 cents in Homestead and 69 cents in

Serge Trubach Seeks Election In Sausalito

Sausalito artist and lecturer Serge Trubach said today he will run for office of city councilman in the April 10 election.

He was the first to announce for the Sausalito City Council, on which the terms of Councilmen George E. Keeney and Marjorie Brady expire. Mrs. Brady has said she will not run for re-election. Keeney has said he is undecided.

Trubach, an unsuccessful candidate in the 1960 race, said "my platform, if there is any place to put a platform before election what with real estate going so fast, will be 'save the rest of Sausalito.'"

Trubach, 49, lives at 631 Bridgeway. He is a painter and an art lecturer.

"I want to get elected," Trubach said, "not as an artist or politician but as a statesman. As an elder statesman, he added, "because I'm becoming one waiting for something really constructive for Sausalito. I'm getting aged for the good."

Kennedy Gives Rosy Picture For Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy reported today the nation met its recovery aims in 1961, is making "another giant stride" toward full employment this year, and can attain a "staggering" 600 billion dollars worth of production in 1932.

The time to erect a defense-in-depth against future recessions is this prospering moment, Kennedy told Congress in his economic report. It was the third and last of the major White House messages to the new session.

TELLS NEED

The antislump weapons needed, he said, are his twin plans—sourly greeted by most Republican Congress members—for standby presidential powers to cut taxes temporarily and unleash federal money for quick-acting public works.

Kennedy urged Congress to let him trigger up to two billion dollars of lending, spending and matching funds into the works plan when joblessness reaches danger points which he defined.

He also spelled out for the first time how much tax-cutting lee-way he wants—enough, he said, to throw five billion dollars of new buying power into a faltering economy in six months, or, if extended with Congress' assent, 10 billion dollars in a year.

TAX RATE

The cuts he proposed would be up to 5 percentage points in each income tax rate bracket. That would mean a one-fourth tax reduction for the lowest taxpayer group, but considerably less, in proportion, for the higher-income families.

Further, Kennedy said, this Congress should:

Empower him to "negotiate a reduction in the tariff of the European Common Market" with a gradual lowering of U.S. duties.

Lengthen jobless benefits permanently and enroll three million new workers under unemployment insurance.

Enact promptly the pending 8 per cent investment credit for industry.

He also called for repeal of the Silver Purchase Act, aid to education at all levels, health care for the aged under Social Security, job training for idle

Attorney Free After Telegraph Hill Adventure

Richard W. Graham, 31, attorney of 41 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda, was free on bail from San Francisco's City Prison today but uncertain as to whether a charge of suspicion of burglary would be pressed as result of a Telegraph Hill adventure early Saturday.

Graham was picked up by a policeman after a telephoned complaint by 23-year-old Judy L. Taylor who had heard someone prowling around her back door. When she saw Graham she said she recognized him as an escort on one or two occasions.

The district attorney's office was to interview Miss Taylor this afternoon before deciding whether to press the charge.

ROME PROTESTS

Bulgarian Jet Lands In Italy; Defect Story Is Disbelieved

BARI, Italy (AP)—Italy strongly protested to Bulgaria the flight of a Communist supersonic jet carrying high-powered cameras over a secret Allied missle base near Bari, and Italian newspapers today raised the cry: "A new U2?"

The young Bulgarian air force pilot, dragged in tears from his wrecked plane, asked not to be turned over to Bulgarian consular officials, implying he was making a break for freedom.

Counter-intelligence agents were skeptical of his story and studied exposed film found in the Soviet-built MIG-19. Officials pointed out that if he was defecting, he passed up several chances to land at Italian air fields before his plane crashed.

The armed fighter make two low-level passes over the missile base at Gioia del Colle—a new, closely guarded NATO installation — before slamming to the ground in a field Saturday only 2,000 yards from the base.

The Bulgarian consulate in a statement said the pilot, Second Lt. Milusc Solakov, 22, lost his way on a training flight in fog. It demanded the return of Solakov and the plane. The crash was 400 miles from his base in central Bulgaria.

Premier Amintore Fanfari conferred at length with Foreign Minister Antonio Segni yesterday and then sent a protest to the Bulgarian minister in Rome, Constantin Micev, charging violation of Italian air space.

The young pilot, who suffered only a fractured left arm and scalp, was held under heavy guard in a hospital at Acquaviva, a small town 16 miles south of Bari.

Italian newspapers compared Sokalov to American spy pilot Francis Gary Powers who U-2 plane was downed over the Soviet Union in May 1960. That brought an international uproar which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev used to wreck the Paris summit conference later.

Power was sentenced to 10 years' inprisonment on spy charges by a Soviet court, and one Rome newspaper urged today that the Italian government be just as severe with Solakov.

Like Powers, Solakov was flying a high-altitude reconnaissance plane loaded with elaborate photo equipment.

Military sources said the missile base's radar picked up a flight of Bulgarian planes — four to eight—swinging in over Italy from across the Adriatic at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Solakov was tracked as he peeled off from the rest and then flashed low — possibly attempting to elude the radarscope—overt the Italian countryside.

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was confined to his home today with the grippe. A government spokesman said the 86-year-old chancellor was running a temperature.

Demos Praised

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy, likening the Republican party to a ship at anchor, says Democrats are dedicated to moving ahead and should "run in a progressive world" in the fall elections.

"The fire from our efforts can light the world," he told a table-thumping crowd of 6,000 Democrats at his inaugural anniversary banquet Saturday night.

Joining other party leaders in attacking the Republicans as too conservative, the president said: "There is no room in the United States for two parties that believe in lying at unchor."

Sen. Schoeppel Of Kansas Dies At 67

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Sen. Andrew F. Schoeppel (R-Kan.) died yesterday at the Bethseda, Md., Naval Hospital where he had been under treatment for an abdominal malignant tumor. He was 67.

Schoeppel, who had served in the Senate since 1948, was a member of the appropriations, commerce and small business committees.

He also was chairman of the Republican Committee on Committees.

Schoeppel had been a patient at the hospital since early December. In November, he underwent surgery for another illness.

The senator's political career began in the early 1930s when he served as city commissioner of Ness City, a community in western Kansas.

He was elected governor of Kansas in 1942. He was elected to a second term as governor ni 1944.

In 1948, Schoeppel was elected to the U. S. Senate and won a second term in 1954. He was elected to a third term in 1960.

He was Kansas' senior senator. His fellow Republican in the Senate, Frank Carlson, was elected to his first term in 1950.

Parley Opens On Problem Of Havana

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—Western Hemisphere foreign ministers ceremonially were to open their conference on Cuban communism today and then shift into informal private sessions to discuss family disputes imperiling inter-American unity.

The word for the conference sponsored by the Organization of American States was not yet "gloomy," but there was fear the meeting would flounder in bickering over how or whether to punish Fidel Castro's Cuban regime.

The conferees agreed to delay their first plenary session until Tuesday to afford more time for backstage bargaining. The delay was regarded by some here as evidence of some nations' reluctance to take a strong line against the Cuban regime.

Major Action Is Scheduled In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)— Major action is scheduled this week on the floor and in committee of both the Senate and the House.

A postal rate bill comes before the House tomorrow with a final vote likely Wednesday. It would add a penny to the cost of mailing a letter.

Final voting is scheduled to start tomorrow in the Senate on a House-passed measure known as the Du Pont tax bill. The bill would allow stockholders of the big Delaware corporation who receive General Motors stock owned by Du Pont to pay taxes on it at a special rate instead of the higher regular income rate. Du Pont has been ordered by the courts to divest itself of about three billion dollars worth of General Motors stock.

ON DOCKET

The postal rate increase measure technically has been on the House docket since last summer. It would add about $550 million to postal revenues. An administration-backed amendment likely to be approved would raise the extra income to 621 million dollars.

Most of the extra revenue would come from a one-cent hike in first class and air mail rates, with lesser amounts from higher rates for second and third class—newspapers, magazines and bulk mail.

The House Ways and Means Committee has started the final round of work on the president's bill to tighten up some taxes and to give business a billion-dollar incentive to modernize. The measure is expected to be ready for a House vote next month.

JOB MEASURE

The Education and Labor Committee, headed by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.), starts deliberating Thursday on a civil rights measure which may never get to the House floor. The measure would set up a five-member commission to prevent discrimination in employment because of race, age or sex.

Two bills backed by President John F. Kennedy will be considered on Wednesday by the House Rules Committee. They provide for creation of a Cabinet-status department of urban affairs and housing, and for federal aid for higher education.

Orbit Of U.S. Astronaut Is Postponed To Saturday

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—United States' plans to send astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. three times around the earth were postponed a second time today, probably until next Saturday.

Reliable sources reported additional days were needed to completely check out faulty oxygen system in the environmental control system. This system, which feeds oxygen to the astronaut's pressurized space suit, developed problems during a checkout early today.

The discovery of the trouble prompted officials to call an immediate 24-hour delay of the shot, pushing it off from Wednesday until Thursday. Later, the sources reported, it was decided to make a complete check to insure all is right for Glenn's safety.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has not announced a definite date for the firing, and therefore declined comment on the report.

The trouble developed in a hard-to-get-at spot in the capsule and the entire control panel had to be removed so technicians could correct it.

Wild Student Riots Shake Iran Capital

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — Wild student riots in which hundreds were injured prompted the Iranian government today to ban a demonstration by the opposition National Front Party.

The students, whose riots led to the downfall of two previous governments, used rocks, bricks and clubs in a three-hour battle with police and soldiers who swarmed onto the Tehran University campus.

It was the worst riot since former Premier Mohammed Mossadegh was overthrowni n 1953. A government spokesman said it was provoked by feudal landlords who must sell their surplus lands for redistribution under a new government reform law.

The students cried for new elections and protested a government cut in boarding allowances in the teachers' training college and the expulsion of a dozen pro-Mossadegh students from Tehran High School.

Premier Ali Amini dissolved parliament when he took office last May. He has said elections will be held as soon as the Shah of Iran and his cabinet put a new election law into force.

An estimated 3,000 to 4,000 youths took part in the riots. At least 400 were injured and another 300 arrested but no deaths were reported.

Underground Forces Hit Base In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—Striking boldly at dawn, uniformed armed raiders of the underground Secret Army fighting Algerian independence invaded a French military camp yesterday and escaped with weapons and equipment.

A government communique said about 70 raiders were aided by a sentry and an officer inside the camp at Sidi Chami, near Oran, in western Algeria.

There was no report whether the guards put up a fight. A terse communique said only: "As soon as the alert was given, a search operation was launched."

The raid came amid continuing hit-and-run terrorist attacks over the rebellious North African territory. Yesterday 22 persons were killed—15 Moslems and seven Europeans—and 58 wounded.

Sources said the invaders of the Sidi Chami camp apparentiy were members of one of the commando units recently set up by the rightist Secret Army Organization which has succeeded in enlisting the support of most of Algeria's million European settlers.

Several hundred Moslem prisoners were being held in the camp, but there was no indication that any were molested by the raiders.

ROME PROTESTS

BARI, Italy (AP)—Italy strongly protested to Bulgaria the flight of a Communist supersonic jet carrying high-powered cameras over a secret Allied missle base near Bari, and Italian newspapers today raised the cry: "A new U2?"

The young Bulgarian air force pilot, dragged in tears from his wrecked plane, asked not to be turned over to Bulgarian consular officials, implying he was making a break for freedom.

Counter-intelligence agents were skeptical of his story and studied exposed film found in the Soviet-built MIG-19. Officials pointed out that if he was defecting, he passed up several chances to land at Italian air fields before his plane crashed.

The armed fighter make two low-level passes over the missile base at Gioia del Colle—a new, closely guarded NATO installation — before slamming to the ground in a field Saturday only 2,000 yards from the base.

The Bulgarian consulate in a statement said the pilot, Second Lt. Milusc Solakov, 22, lost his way on a training flight in fog. It demanded the return of Solakov and the plane. The crash was 400 miles from his base in central Bulgaria.

Premier Amintore Fanfari conferred at length with Foreign Minister Antonio Segni yesterday and then sent a protest to the Bulgarian minister in Rome, Constantin Micev, charging violation of Italian air space.

The young pilot, who suffered only a fractured left arm and scalp, was held under heavy guard in a hospital at Acquaviva, a small town 16 miles south of Bari.

Italian newspapers compared Sokalov to American spy pilot Francis Gary Powers who U-2 plane was downed over the Soviet Union in May 1960. That brought an international uproar which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev used to wreck the Paris summit conference later.

Power was sentenced to 10 years' inprisonment on spy charges by a Soviet court, and one Rome newspaper urged today that the Italian government be just as severe with Solakov.

Like Powers, Solakov was flying a high-altitude reconnaissance plane loaded with elaborate photo equipment.

Military sources said the missile base's radar picked up a flight of Bulgarian planes — four to eight—swinging in over Italy from across the Adriatic at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Solakov was tracked as he peeled off from the rest and then flashed low — possibly attempting to elude the radarscope—overt the Italian countryside.

Stars' Plane Hit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A crowded twin-engine airliner, carrying comedian Bob Hope, actress Jane Wyman and several dozen others, was struck by lightning yesterday over Northern California, Hope said today.

The lightning bolt evidently disabled some of the craft's instruments, Hope said, and the pilot turned around and landed at San Francisco instead of continuing to Los Angeles.

"The lightning hit the nose of the plane. The pilot told us: 'A strange thing just happened, ladies and gentlemen. We've been hit by lightning and we're still flying.'

"I turned to Jane Wyman and said: 'Is there an insurance machine on this plane?'"

THE BARBARA WORTH BURNS DOWN

Fire yesterday destroyed the famed Barbara Worth Hotel at El Centro in Imperial County. The hotel was named for the heroine of Harold Bell Wright's novel "The Winning of Barbara Worth," which depicted the founding of Imperial Valley. Wright's desk, at which he wrote the turn-of-the-century novel also was destroyed. Damage was estimated at about 1.5 million dollars. The hotel was built in 1914. (AP Wirephoto)

Burglars Loot Store In Hub; $2,500 Loss

Burglars held a "grand opening" of the new showroom of Hoy's TV and Music Store at 552 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, to the tune of $2,500, police reported.

Proprietor Ralph Hoy estimated that was the value of six television sets, about 14 transistor radios, a tape recorder and four portake phonographs he had just moved into the store, adjoining his main Hub City store at 550 San Anselmo Avenue, last Friday.

Sometime Friday night, somebody cleaned out the shop.

There was no evidence of forcible entry, but Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said the door to the store, which formerly was occupied by Lalla's Gift Shop, can be opened with a simple master key.

'Political Football' Fear Raised In Sausalito

Marian W. Frick will ask the Sausalito City Council tomorrow night that her request for a use permit an 80-room hotel at 104 Bulkley Avenue be taken off the agenda because, with the recall movement, it may become a "political football."

Mrs. Frick is appealing to the council from the planning commission's denial of the use permit. The commission denied 6-1, commissioner Robert L. Nisson dissenting, on grounds there should be no commercial hotels in that zone.

"The filing of Mr. (Russell S.) Reagan's recall petition against Mayor (Philip S.) Ehrlich and Councilman (Michael) Harris inevitably creates an atmosphere rife with political pressures and counter-pressures," said Richard Gladstein, attorney for Mrs. Frick.

"Such a situation is not conducive to the best processes of adjudication. Mrs. Frick's appeal to the council is a matter of transcendant importance to her. It should not become or even appear to become a political football. Under the circumstances I have informed the mayor that we prefer not to present our appeal at this time."

Teeners, Wine Cause Ruckus At Theater

Two youths were arrested by San Anselmo police last night on charges of striking a theater usher and possessing wine in the Tamalpais Theater.

Richard L. Aregger, 18, of 55 Corte Maranda, San Rafael, was booked in county jail for assault and battery. William H. Switzer, also 18, of 1414 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, was booked for illegal possession of alcohol.

Mrs. Glenda Dooley, 27, of 27 Warner Court, San Rafael, was treated for a possible fracture of her right arm.

Police said Mrs. Dooley asked the pair to leave the theater, and they refused, using "profane language." When she asked another patron to call the police, Aregger allegedly grabbed her arm and twisted it.

Mrs. Dooley said the youths were creating a disturbance and had a half-gallon of wine with them.

Body Of Missing Man Found Beside Creek

The body of a 73-year-old Mill Valley man, reportedly missing since Friday evening, was found late yesterday on the bank of Mill Valley creek more than a mile from his home.

Carl Borgeson, of 12 Presidio Avenue, was found lying face down on the east bank of the creek between Sycamore Avenue and Tamalpais High School by his son, Robert Borgeson of by his son, Robert Borgeson of San Mateo, and a friend, James G. Oliver of 13 Ricardo Lane, Mill Valley.

The creek passes in the rear of the Borgeson property.

Mrs. Sarah Borgeson, the dead man's wife, reported to police at 5:45 a.m. Saturday that her husband was missing. He was last seen, she said, at 7 p.m. on Friday.

The two searchers, fearing he might have fallen in the creek which was swollen by Friday night's torrential rain, first found his hat and then his overcoat. The body was apparently left high on the creek bank when the waters subsided yesterday.

Robert Borgeson said he believed his father slipped and fell into the creek.

Borgeson had been a stevedore in San Francisco for many years prior to his retirement eight years ago. Before 1917, he drove a horse-drawn delivery wagon in Mill Valley.

He was a member of Local 10, International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union.

He is survived by his wife; four sons, Robert; Maj. Ralph P. Borgeson of Colorado Springs; Douglas S. Borgeson of Los Angeles and Cal L. Borgeson of Mill Valley; a sister, Mrs. Mildred Wells, who was the first white child born in Mill Valley; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Crash Of Broken Glass Triggers Burglar Hunt

The crash of a broken window in Fairfax Saturday afternoon triggered a burglar hunt and police chase ending with capture of a suspect in the chilly waters of Cascade Creek.

Donald J. Corriea of 84 the Alameda, San Anselmo, was in the home of his father-in-law, M. C. Henker at 140 Madrone Road, Fairfax, when he heard the sound of a window breaking in front. He immediately phoned police.

Three officers in two automobiles responded. They approached the Henker from different directions. Chief Clifton C. Cordes and Capt. Henry Vonderheide went toward the front, noting two broken windows. Patrolman William Dooley approached the rear.

A man suddenly appeared out the rear doorway and ran down the steps, throwing a wrapped object under the house. This was later found to be a .22 calibre rifle belonging to the Henkers.

"Halt!" cried Dooley. Instead the man leaped a barbed wire fence and raced down the mountain side, Dooley in pursuit. Cordes heard the noise, jumped back into his car and sought to head off the fleeing man on Cascade Drive.

The running man eluded Cordes and kept on downhill, finally splashing into the creek, where Dooley caught up and handcuffed him.

Cordes recognized the suspect as a Fairfax resident, Walter V. Burke Jr., 23. He said today that Burke was known to be "emotionally disturbed."

Burke was booked at the county jail on a charge of burglary and bail was set at $1,050. Apparently nothing but the gun had been removed from the Henker home, Chief Cordes reported.

Kentfield School Trustees To Meet

An application for National Defense Education Act aid in the mathematics program will be discussed by Kentfield School District trustees at their meeting today at 7:45 p.m. in Room 4 of Greenbrae School.

Other items on the agenda include a report on the economic education project for the upper grades; report on the rapid learner program in the district, and hiring of two additional teachers.

Trustees To Meet

Novato Unified School District trustees will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow to complete agenda items which were not considered at last Tuesday night's meeting. These include reports on building projects and a report on the 1962 summer school.

Counterfeit Ring Is Broken Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Secret Service agents said today they have broken up a counterfeit ring with the seizure of almost a half million dollars in bogus $20 bills in three Western states.

The agents arrested four men. Other arrests may be made.

Tom Hanson, special agent in charge of the San Francisco Secret Service office, said $220,000 of counterfeit bills were seized at the Oakland International Airport Sunday, and $195,000 taken at the Greyhound bus terminal in Reno. Smaller amounts were seized at Santa Clara and Sacmento, Sunnyside, and Zillah, Wash.

Hansen said the case unfolded after the arrest in Seattle of Arthur Gushen, president of the R & B Distributing Co., a distributor of fallout shelters.

Gushen confessed, Hanson said, that he and others made approximately $500,000 of the bogus money. His statement led to the arrest of James Buderus, 31, on a San Jose street last Friday night.

Hanson said that $2,740 in counterfeit money was found in the automatic washer of a house Buderus rented at 576 Hudson Drive, Santa Clara.

Capt. William Salt of the Santa Clara County sheriff's office said this find was made by Sheriff's Sgt. Ralph Quintel and Secret Service Agent Robert Newbrand.

Hanson said that the first arrest was Jan. 16 in Sacramento. Secret Service agents picked up Patrick O'Reilly, 65, former convict, on his first effort to pass a phoney bill. Agents found $4,800 of the counterfeit money in his possession. O'Reilly said he got the money from Gushen.

Hanson said Tom Parks, 45, was arrested at Zillah, Wash. He had $3,000 worth of bills. He was vice president of the distributing company.

Falling Limb Cuts Power In Novato

A tree falling across a 12,000-volt electric line on Monte Maria Avenue, Novato, at 2:34 p.m. yesterday cut power to approximately 1,500 houses from Nave Shopping Center to Vallejo.

Joaquin Miranda Jr. was trimming a cottonwood tree at 1320 Monte Maria Avenue when a gust of wind caught the branch he was cutting and blew it across the power line, said Leonard O. Robertson, district electric superintendent for Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Power was cut off for 15 minutes in the area along South Novato Boulevard south of Nave Shopping Center, the traffic light at the intersection of Highway 101 and 37 and in Black Point, Lakeville Road, Sears Point and almost to the Vallejo city limits, Robertson said.

Driver, Passenger Hurt In Wreck On Highway

A driver and passenger in a car on Highway 101 suffered injuries yesterday when another vehicle crossed ahead of them from McPhail's Novato yard east of the highway.

Manz told the California Highway Patrol he had just left the traffic light at the Black Point cutoff intersection at 1:35 a.m. when a car driven by Stanley G. Martin, Oakland ship's clerk, started across the highway from a private road to the east. Martin was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Liquor Cabinet Broken Into

A burglar obviously planning a party broke into the liquor cabinet of Robert Alexander Walker, 47, of 313 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael, on Saturday evening.

He left with two fifths of Scotch whisky, two fifths of bourbon, several fifths of gin and a half-gallon rocker dispenser of gin, police said.

Walker, a building contractor, told police he was away from home from 7 p.m. to midnight. The liquor was taken form a locked cabinet in an open cabana.

Underpass Fence To Be Discussed

Fencing of the Marin City underpass at the Sausalito lateral will be discussed by Sausalito School District trustees at 8 p.m. today at the district office.

A fence is now affixed to the underpass for safety of students walking between Marin City and Richardson Bay School, but the approaches to the underpass are not fenced.

Also on the agenda will be a discussion on second and third grade curriculum, summer school, the child care center, and night basketball league at Ricardson Bay School.

Mrs. Scanlon Divorces Former Boxer

Robert Emmett. ("Irish Bobby") Scanlon, 25, ex-New York State lightweight boxing champion, was divorced today by his wife, who charged that he twice beat her after he had been drinking.

She suffered black eyes, swollen lips and other bruises, Mrs. Geneilda Elizabeth Scanlon, 22, testified before Judge Leonard A. Thomas, sitting in Marin Superior Court.

The judge granted her an interlocutory decree of divorce, $1 a month alimony and $20 a week support for each of their two sons, Gregory, 2, and Kevin, 1.

At one point in her testimony, Mrs. Scanlon, a drug store clerk, broke down and cried.

The decree was by default. Scanlon was not present. The wife was represented by attorney Carl Shapiro.

They were married May 6, 1959, and separated last Sept. 1.

youths and job retraining for out-of-work adults.

The president pledged that this recovery will not be nipped off prematurely—as he said that of 1959 was—by a tight-money policy.

The outlook for stable living costs is favorable, he assured Congress, if unions and industry will show statesmanlike restraint in pay settlements to avoid a spiral of wage and price advance.

The president said the country has achieved the immediate aims he set a year ago—to "recover not from one but from two recessions" — by starting the economy uphill and reducing joblessness while keeping price stability. "Confidence in the dollar has been restored," he said.

This year national output should rise about 50 billion dollars above the 521 billion dollars of 1961, he predicted, adding: "This woud be another giant stride toward a fully employed economy."

Apartment Plan On Novato Agenda

An application for a 20-unit apartment building at Vallejo Avenue and Third Streets in Novato, which was delayed because of the "building freeze" in the city's northwest quadrant, will come before the Novato city planning commission at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the community building.

George Kerrigan had requested the apartment building for three lots on the southeast corner of the intersection.

Other items to come before the commission include adoption of a partial land use portion of the master plan.

Bridge Tourney Winners Told

Three Marin teams were winners in the Golden Gate regional bridge tournament yesterday in San Francisco.

In the open pairs section, Cleone and James Myers of Kentfield were among the winners. In the San Francisco pairs section, Mrs. P. A. Bates of Kentfield teamed with Mildred Collins of Oakland on one team placing in the winners section, and Marguerite Tognoli and Eva Reed of San Rafael were also among the winners.

Final matches of the tournament were to be played today.

Girl, 18, Treated At Napa Hospital

An 18-year-old San Rafael girl was taken to Napa State Hospital about 3 a.m. yesterday after slashing her wrists with a razor blade.

Ellen Diane Bunch of 8 Laurel Place was first treated at San Rafael General Hospital for the wounds, described by hospital attendants as not serious.

INCOME TAX FACTS

New Simple Form Looks Pretty Good

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

For 1961 we have a new federal income tax form 1040 consisting of only one piece of paper with two pages.

The old small form 1040W has been discontinued. The punched card form 1040A for taxpayers with income of $10,000 or under will continue to be used for simple returns.

P. J. WIKEL

The new form 1040 sounds real good and it is if you have a very simple financial life.

If you have income other than a normal salary or deductions you will have to attach to this form 1040 another form to explain the income or deduction.

For instance:

If you received sick pay, attach form 2440.

If you are claiming child care expenses, attach form 2441.

If you received wages from more than three employers, attach form 2836.

If you itemize your deduction, attach schedules.

In any event you must fill out Schedule D if you bought or sold real estate, stocks, bonds, and so forth.

If you contribute to the support of a dependent you may have to fill out form 2120, or 2038, etc.

Tamalpais Valley, might be below 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Opponents to the merger say, according to former Chief Chester Kirby, that the commissioners who may be elected would represent mainly Tamalpais Valley and not Homestead. Kirby adds that since merger has been discussed, disturbing arguments have arisen among the volunteers, causing some to quit.

He also said, however, that, if the Homestead people vote two-thirds in favor of consolidation, the Homestead Firemen's Club will turn its firehouse over to the new district.

The poll for Tamalpais Valley and Almonte voters is at Myer's Cleaning and Dyeing at Tamalpais Junction. For Homestead it is the Homestead Valley Firehouse at Evergreen and Melrose avenues. Hours to vote are from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Woodworth, chairman of the Homestead commission, said Tamalpais Valley Fire Chief Herbert Owen, will assume job of chief of the combined district if the vote is for merger. This has been agreed upon by both of the commissions. Connie Tarrabella is acting Homestead fire chief, having taken over last July when Kirby retired.

Commissioner Modell emphasized that the merger is a "pioneer thing which may be the first step in getting more unified essential services in Marin."

School Districts Futures On Tap At Joint Meeting

The future of their school districts will be discussed by the trustees of San Jose, Dixie, San Rafael and Novato school districts at a special meeting at 8 o'clcok tonight in the library of the new San Jose intermediate school.

This will be a general discussion of future district organization in the area, said Supt. Philip Schneider of the San Jose district, host of the meeting.

Possibilities to be discussed include whether San Jose should join Novato, join with Dixie and form its own unified district, split and have part of the district go to San Rafael and part to the Novato Unified School District, according to Schneider.

There also were 12 weather-blamed fatalities in Texas, nine in California, four each in Pennsylvania and Washington, three in Rhode Island, two each in Connecticut and Massachusetts, and one in Oregon.

The ice band began in the southwest, where highways were glazed throughout the northern half of Texas and public schools closed down in Fort Worth and Dallas. It ranged through the Middle West into Michigan, where secondary streets in Detroit were sheets of ice and motorists were blinded by a mixture of rain and mud. Ice-slicked roads kept school doors shut in 50 southeast Michigan communities.

Other mid-winter trouble spots included:

New England, where four persons drowned as they ventured too far onto thin ice.

Pittsburgh, Pa., where rain triggered a rock and earth slide onto one of the city's main boulevards, injurling a cab driver and shutting off both outbound lanes for several hours.

Southern Illinois, where 24-hour rains of up to 2.82 inches flooded roads and isolated homes. Civil defense crews stood by with boats to rescue four flood-surrounded families at West Frankfort, Ill., but the water fell before flight became necessary.

The Mississippi river, where the worst ice lockup in 20 years stalled 20 towboats and 250 barges at Cairo, Ill. Some rivermen said the huge ice gorge blocking the stream was the worst since 1903.

Lake Placid, N. Y., where ground parties climbed through fog and rain in the Adirondack Mountains searching a missing B-47 jet bomber with four men aboard.

Meadowsweet Apartment Plan Rejected

Although more voted in favor than against, the Marin County Planning Commission today denied a zoning change in the Meadowsweet area near Corte Madera which would create more apartment houses.

The commissioners voted 3-2 to rezone from limited agriculture to planned residential the 4.36-acre property at the northwest corner of Meadow Valley Road and the Highway 101 frontage road in Meadowsweet. Absent was commissioner Worth Fenner.

For passage, a majority vote of all commissioners (four) is needed for zoning matters.

Requesting the rezoning was Frank S. Sutherland, developer who hopes to construct apartment houses on the property. If rezoned to planned residential, either single family houses or apartments could be built.

Voting against the rezoning were Felix M. Warburg who wanted a specific residential density outlined and chairman Dr. William Upton who wanted to study the apartment plans before voting for a zoning change.

After pleas from Sutherland, the commission voted unanimously to reconsider the Sutherland request at the March 19 meeting at which time he will bring in a master plan for the apartment house development which will include density charts.

FOOTBALL PLAYER CRASH

'Control Loss' Put Down As Plane Disaster Cause

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board today attributed the 1960 football — charter plane crash in Ohio, to "loss of control during a premature liftoff."

Twenty-two persons were killed, including 16 players of the California State Polytechnic College football team who were returning home after playing Bowling Green State University. There were 26 survivors.

The plane crashed and burned shortly after take-off at Toledo on Oct. 29, 1960. It was a twin-engined C46, operated by Arctic-Pacific, Inc. an Oakland, supplemental airline.

In its report on the investigation of the crash the board said these also were contributing factors:

1. The C-46 was loaded 2,000 pounds beyond its maximum certified weight. It also was over the allowable takeoff weight on departure from refueling stops at Albuquerque, N.M. and Youngstown, Ohio. The board said this was indicative of what it called the disregard the pilot, Capt. Donald L. J. Chesher, 38, had for regulations.

Both Chesher and the copilot were killed in the crash.

2. The plane attempted to take off in "zero visibility" conditions—in a fog so thick that Chesher had to make a walking tour of the area to find out where other airplanes were parked and refueling personnel had to direct him to the taxiway with flashlights.

3. The left engine suffered a partial loss of power on takeoff, because of "maloperation of the engines not properly run up immediately prior to takeoff."

The power loss, a swerving takeoff due to erratic engine performance, and poor visibility combined to produce the premature liftoff, the board said.

It said the pilot was unable to remain airborne, either because of a stall condition or a power loss or both.

The CAB said:

"The board concludes that Capt. Chesher and the management of Arctic-Pacific Airlines displayed utter disregard for the regulations set forth as to flight time limitations, minimum weather condition, maintenance and inspection practices, and for compliance with regulations concerned with ensuring operation, including maximum gross takeoff weight, in a manner to guarantee safety to the public."

Robber Pleads Guilty In Dope Case

In a surprise move, convicted San Francisco robber Clark McKeown, 30, pleaded guilty today in Marin Superior Court to dope smuggling charges and asked to be kept in the county jail pending his sentence instead of being returned to San Quentin Prison.

Judge Thomas F. Keating granted the request, made by McKeown's attorney, Philip Evans of Oakland. McKeown will be sentenced next Monday.

Evans made the request "for the protection of this man's life" and said out of court he feared Evans might be slain if returned to the prison.

Thomas Devers, 24, convicted of receiving stolen goods, was killed at the prison Dec. 18 after the transcript of his testimony was given to other convicts accused in the case.

Three women and five conicts were indicted on charges of conspiring to smuggle $18,000 worth of heroin into San Quentin.

One of the women, Anne Marie Kellam, 25, of Oakland was to have been sentenced today on her guilty plea. When her probation report was not ready, Judge Keating put off her sentencing to Feb. 5.

Slight Auto Bump: Sickness Later

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be affected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers may occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebrae that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers eventually will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

Counterfeit Ring Is Broken Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Secret Service agents said today they have broken up a counterfeit ring with the seizure of almost a half million dollars in bogus $20 bills in three Western states.

The agents arrested four men. Other arrests may be made.

Tom Hanson, special agent in charge of the San Francisco Secret Service office, said $220,000 of counterfeit bills were seized at the Oakland International Airport Sunday, and $195,000 taken at the Greyhound bus terminal in Reno. Smaller amounts were seized at Santa Clara and Sacmento, Sunnyside, and Zillah, Wash.

Hansen said the case unfolded after the arrest in Seattle of Arthur Gushen, president of the R & B Distributing Co., a distributor of fallout shelters.

Gushen confessed, Hanson said, that he and others made approximately $500,000 of the bogus money. His statement led to the arrest of James Buderus, 31, on a San Jose street last Friday night.

Hanson said that $2,740 in counterfeit money was found in the automatic washer of a house Buderus rented at 576 Hudson Drive, Santa Clara.

Capt. William Salt of the Santa Clara County sheriff's office said this find was made by Sheriff's Sgt. Ralph Quintel and Secret Service Agent Robert Newbrand.

Hanson said that the first arrest was Jan. 16 in Sacramento. Secret Service agents picked up Patrick O'Reilly, 65, former convict, on his first effort to pass a phoney bill. Agents found $4,800 of the counterfeit money in his possession. O'Reilly said he got the money from Gushen.

Hanson said Tom Parks, 45, was arrested at Zillah, Wash. He had $3,000 worth of bills. He was vice president of the distributing company.

Falling Limb Cuts Power In Novato

A tree falling across a 12,000-volt electric line on Monte Maria Avenue, Novato, at 2:34 p.m. yesterday cut power to approximately 1,500 houses from Nave Shopping Center to Vallejo.

Joaquin Miranda Jr. was trimming a cottonwood tree at 1320 Monte Maria Avenue when a gust of wind caught the branch he was cutting and blew it across the power line, said Leonard O. Robertson, district electric superintendent for Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Power was cut off for 15 minutes in the area along South Novato Boulevard south of Nave Shopping Center, the traffic light at the intersection of Highway 101 and 37 and in Black Point, Lakeville Road, Sears Point and almost to the Vallejo city limits, Robertson said.

Driver, Passenger Hurt In Wreck On Highway

A driver and passenger in a car on Highway 101 suffered injuries yesterday when another vehicle crossed ahead of them from McPhail's Novato yard east of the highway.

Victims were Rolf H. Manz of 897 Eucalptus Avenue, Novato, bar manager at the Hamilton Air Force Base Club, and Edward H. Douglas of Petaluma.

Manz told the California Highway Patrol he had just left the traffic light at the Black Point cutoff intersection at 1:35 a.m. when a car driven by Stanley G. Martin, Oakland ship's clerk, started across the highway from a private road to the east. Martin was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Liquor Cabinet Broken Into

A burglar obviously planning a party broke into the liquor cabinet of Robert Alexander Walker, 47, of 313 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael, on Saturday evening.

He left with two fifths of Scotch whisky, two fifths of bourbon, several fifths of gin and a half-gallon rocker dispenser of gin, police said.

Walker, a building contractor, told police he was away from home from 7 p.m. to midnight. The liquor was taken form a locked cabinet in an open cabana.

Underpass Fence To Be Discussed

Fencing of the Marin City underpass at the Sausalito lateral will be discussed by Sausalito School District trustees at 8 p.m. today at the district office.

A fence is now affixed to the underpass for safety of students walking between Marin City and Richardson Bay School, but the approaches to the underpass are not fenced.

Also on the agenda will be a discussion on second and third grade curriculum, summer school, the child care center, and night basketball league at Ricardson Bay School.

Mrs. Scanlon Divorces Former Boxer

Robert Emmett. ("Irish Bobby") Scanlon, 25, ex-New York State lightweight boxing champion, was divorced today by his wife, who charged that he twice beat her after he had been drinking.

She suffered black eyes, swollen lips and other bruises, Mrs. Geneilda Elizabeth Scanlon, 22, testified before Judge Leonard A. Thomas, sitting in Marin Superior Court.

The judge granted her an interlocutory decree of divorce, $1 a month alimony and $20 a week support for each of their two sons, Gregory, 2, and Kevin, 1.

At one point in her testimony, Mrs. Scanlon, a drug store clerk, broke down and cried.

The decree was by default. Scanlon was not present. The wife was represented by attorney Carl Shapiro.

They were married May 6, 1959, and separated last Sept. 1.

youths and job retraining for out-of-work adults.

The president pledged that this recovery will not be nipped off prematurely—as he said that of 1959 was—by a tight-money policy.

The outlook for stable living costs is favorable, he assured Congress, if unions and industry will show statesmanlike restraint in pay settlements to avoid a spiral of wage and price advance.

The president said the country has achieved the immediate aims he set a year ago—to "recover not from one but from two recessions" — by starting the economy uphill and reducing joblessness while keeping price stability. "Confidence in the dollar has been restored," he said.

This year national output should rise about 50 billion dollars above the 521 billion dollars of 1961, he predicted, adding: "This woud be another giant stride toward a fully employed economy."

Apartment Plan On Novato Agenda

An application for a 20-unit apartment building at Vallejo Avenue and Third Streets in Novato, which was delayed because of the "building freeze" in the city's northwest quadrant, will come before the Novato city planning commission at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the community building.

George Kerrigan had requested the apartment building for three lots on the southeast corner of the intersection.

Other items to come before the commission include adoption of a partial land use portion of the master plan.

INCOME TAX FACTS

New Simple Form Looks Pretty Good

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

For 1961 we have a new federal income tax form 1040 consisting of only one piece of paper with two pages.

P. J. WIKEL

The old small form 1040W has been discontinued. The punched card form 1040A for taxpayers with income of $10,000 or under will continue to be used for simple returns.

The new form 1040 sounds real good and it is if you have a very simple financial life.

If you have income other than a normal salary or deductions you will have to attach to this form 1040 another form to explain the income or deduction.

For instance:

If you received sick pay, attach form 2440.

If you paid medical expenses for your parents, attach form 2948.

If you are claiming child care expenses, attach form 2441.

If you received wages from more than three employers, attach form 2836.

If you itemize your deduction, attach schedules.

In any event you must fill out Schedule D if you bought or sold real estate, stocks, bonds, and so forth.

If you contribute to the support of a dependent you may have to fill out form 2120, or 2038, etc.

Opponents to the merger say, according to former Chief Chester Kirby, that the commissioners who may be elected would represent mainly Tamalpais Valley and not Homestead. Kirby adds that since merger has been discussed, disturbing arguments have arisen among the volunteers, causing some to quit.

He also said, however, that, if the Homestead people vote two-thirds in favor of consolidation, the Homestead Firemen's Club will turn its firehouse over to the new district.

The poll for Tamalpais Valley and Almonte voters is at Myer's Cleaning and Dyeing at Tamalpais Junction. For Homestead it is the Homestead Valley Firehouse at Evergreen and Melrose avenues. Hours to vote are from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Woodworth, chairman of the Homestead commission, said Tamalpais Valley Fire Chief Herbert Owen, will assume job of chief of the combined district if the vote is for merger. This has been agreed upon by both of the commissions. Connie Tarrabella is acting Homestead fire chief, having taken over last July when Kirby retired.

Commissioner Modell emphasized that the merger is a "pioneer thing which may be the first step in getting more unified essential services in Marin."

Whiplash probably is the most common type of injury arising from auto accidents —and most Americans have been involved in a motor mishap at one time or another.

Even a lightweight rear end bump could produce a whiplash injury to the neck. The effects of such a bump can be drastic even though the symptoms don't appear until weeks or months after the accident.

The unexpected bump may snap your head back and cause the vertebrae in your neck to lose their normal alignment. Such a displacement can damage nerves, blood vessels and muscles in the neck region. Eventually organs elsewhere in your body may be affected—the heart, liver, kidneys or stomach.

These symptoms, distant from the site of injury can be explained by the fact that nerves supplying all the organs and tissues of the body originate in the brain and are channeled through the bony framework of the spinal column. Consequently, when the spine is jolted by the sudden whiplash in the neck, a vertebrae may be forced out of place and pinch nerves leading to any one of several organs.

Let's take the stomach as an example. Because of damaged nerve supply, the stomach in time will lose its digestive efficiency and ulcers may occur. The cause of the ulcers, however, remains in the neck . . . the vertebrae that was jerked out of line.

The science of finding and restoring misaligned vertebrae is the science of Chiropractic. When the nerve interference is removed efficiently and painlessly by a Chiropractic adjustment, nerves will return to normal function and the stomach ulcers evenutally will disappear—with the help of time and nature.

OBITUARIES

Charles D. Thomas Dies; Ran Sausalito Taxis

Charles D. Thomas, 65, operator of the Sausalito Taxi Service for 41 years, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

A native of South Carolina, Thomas was a veteran of World War I. His home was at 6 Bonita, Sausalito. He was a member of Mill Valley Lodge 356, Free and Accepted Masons; Knights of Pythias of Sausalito, and the Mill Valley American Legion Post.

He leaves his wife, Hazel; two sons, Samuel A. Thomas of Novato and Charles F. Thomas of Trinity County; six sisters, five brothers, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Frank J. Mortuary, Sausalito. Masonic services will be conducted Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the mortuary by Mill Valley Lodge 356, F. and A.M. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

MRS. CHRISTENSEN

Mrs. Mary Aileen Christensen, 61, a member of a pioneer San Rafael family, died Saturday in a local hospital.

She was the wife of Christian J. Christensen, a retired lumber mill owner, and daughter of the late John Redmond, early San Rafael blacksmith.

Mrs. Christensen was a member of Lagan Institute, Young Ladies Institute; San Rafael Circle, Ancient Order of Druids; and Genessee Council of Pocahontas.

She also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Jeanette A. Bruffy and two grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be celebrated tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. in St. Raphael's Church. The funeral will be conducted at 9:15 a.m. from the Frank J. Keaton Mortuary.

Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited tonight at 8 o'clock in the mortuary.

HELEN TARWATER

Mrs. Helen A. Tarwater, 48, of Fairfax, collapsed of a heart attack as she was entering the Methodist Church of San Rafael for services yesterday morning, and was pronounced dead on arrival at San Rafael General Hospital.

Mrs. Tarwater was just walking into the church as she collapsed. She was taken to the office of the pastor, Rev. Donald H. Baldwin. There, Ruth Ann Cooper of 530 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, and Betty Lou Wood of 1215 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, attempted mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until arrival of an ambulance.

Mrs. Tarwater and her husband, Orville Glenn Tarwater, a Greyhound bus driver, resided at 196 Cascade Drive, Fairfax.

She moved to Marin about 15 years ago from Burley, Ida., where she had spent her girlhood. She was born in Missouri.

She was a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

Surviving, besides her husband, are her mother, Mrs. Minnie Fryemiller of Burley, Ida.; a brother and a sister, Earl Fryemiller and Mrs. Louise Glenn of Burley; a stepson and stepdaughter, Gary Dale Tarwater of San Francisco and Mrs. Richard Salander of Oswego, N.Y., and two grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Methodist Church at 9 Ross Valley Drive, San Rafael. After private family funeral services, the body will be sent to Burley for burial.

The family prefers that tributes be contributions to the memorial fund of the Methodist Church of San Rafael.

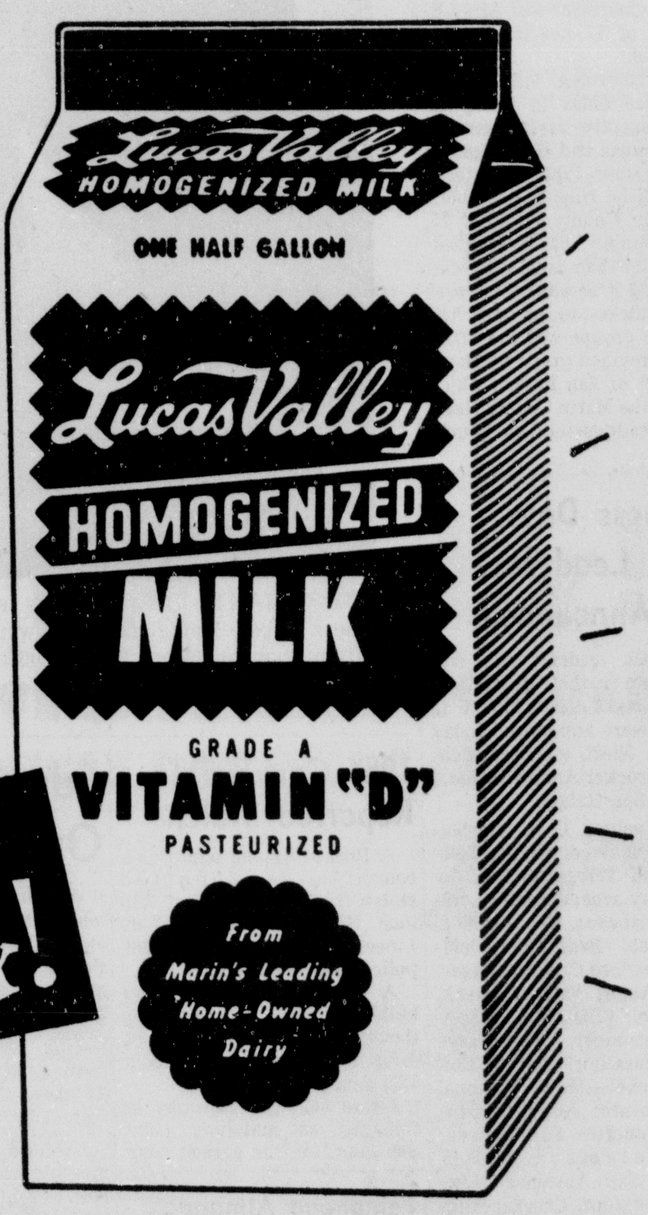
NEW BRIGHT PLASTIC CARTONS



No Wax!

They're here—and Lucas Valley has 'em!

Yes, now you can buy your half-gallons of fresh, fine-flavored Lucas Valley milk in new plastic cartons. No wax either inside or out!

They're easier to handle, yet they'll take far more handling because they're far more rugged. And, because the white's whiter and the colors brighter, you'll spot them much more easily in your grocer's refrigerator—which is where they're waiting for you right now!

DRAKE HIGH GOES ON TELEVISION

Dick Stewart's "Dance Party" program on KPIX (channel 5) on Saturday present Sir Francis Drake High School students in action on campus in San Anselmo. To get the film sequences, Stewart and crew visited Drake. Here, cameraman Sheldon Fay of San Francisco shoots meeting of two foreign exchange students with young student teacher. From left on bench are Jeannue Bui of Saigon, Sergio Pecorelli of Italy and Norma Mitchell, a Drake senior taking student teaching course.

KEEP YOUR MIND ON YOUR POTTERY, MARGARET! — Somewhat flustered at visit of TV personality Dick Stewart (left) to Drake High School pottery class, Margaret Shaw doesn't seem to be watching her work. Stewart made recordings and films for show which will be on KPIX on Jan. 27.

Foreign-Student Homes Needed

Success of the American Field Service exchange student program in Marin next summer and fall depends largely on how many acceptable homes for foreign students are offered by Marinites within the next few weeks, according to Mrs. Joseph C. Marshall of Belvedere, county chairman.

High schools are limited in the number of students they may send abroad under the program by — among other things—how many homes they can provide for foreign students to spend a year in U.S. schools.

"Now is the time we have to find the homes, as the parents have to be interviewed, our lists made up and submitted to national headquarters in New York before March 15," Mrs. Marshall said today.

Six Marin high schools are participating in the program: San Rafael, Sir Francis Drake, Tamalpais, Redwood, Novato, and Katharine Branson. All except Branson now have foreign students attending. Gertrude Axelson of Sweden, exchange student at Branson this year, had to return home because of sickness.

San Rafael High hopes to send one student abroad next summer and another to study a whole year in a foreign school, said Mrs. Walter J. Tait of 71 Lochinvar Road, AFS chairman for the school. Lions and Rotary Clubs help support the exchange student program in San Rafael, and the AFS stages various fund-raising events during the year; but homes must be found for foreign students if San Rafael high school youngsters are to have the opportunity to live and study abroad, she said.

Similar situations exist for the other schools.

For Drake High School, Mrs. Guy Manuel of 75 Bennit Street, San Anselmo; for Tamalpais, Mrs. Richard De Lew of 259 Corte Madera Avenue, Corte Madera; for Redwood, Mrs. John Cunningham of 30 Elm Avenue, Larkspur; for Novato, Mrs. George E. McDaniel of 1819 Novato Boulevard, Novato, and for Katherine Branson, Mrs. Robert E. Blakeslee of 15 Acorn Way, Kentfield.

Open Area Zone Law To Be Asked

Supervisor Peter H. Behr will be asked to introduce an open area zoning ordinance to protect public land on Mount Tamalpais from Mill Valley annexation plans, Mrs. Margaret Hardy, president of the Muir Woods Improvement Assn., said Saturday.

She said that besides deciding to ask Behr to take this action at the Marin County Board of Supervisors, the association Friday night also directed her to give information to any interested club or individual regarding the City of Mill Valley's plan to annex 161 acres of Marin Municipal Water District land on the mountain.

The Mill Valley City Council is to discuss the annexation Feb. 21. The Muir Woods association contends the mountain is "so integral a part of the beauty of Marin that no one community should determine its use."

Red Cross Safe Is Broken Into

A burglar broke into the safe of the Marin County Chapter of the American Red Cross at 712 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, during the weekend police reported.

Police were informed of the burglary by Robert D. Wishard, a volunteer worker of 72 Laurel Avenue in San Anselmo shortly after 9 a.m. yesterday. The director of the office, Margaret Elinor Anderson of 10 Bella Vista in Belvedere, said the amount of the loss would not be known until the bookkeeper checked the records.

More Named To Heart Fund Drive Jobs

Two additional chairmen were named today to head specific aspects of the 1962 Heart Fund drive for Marin by C. Fred Hoffman, Marin County Heart Fund chairman.

San Rafael attorney, David J. Costamagna has accepted the special gifts chairmanship for the Heart Fund drive, which gets underway Feb. 1 and continues throughout the month of February.

Named to the post of special events chairman was Mrs. E. B. Pike of 17 Acacia Avenue, Kentfield.

Both chairmen will appoint committee aides to help in their respective assignments.

Literature and Heart Sunday kits for some 1,900 volunteers who will be ringing door bells in Marin County on Feb. 25, Heart Sunday, has been readied earlier than usual this year.

Making it possible for scores of volunteers to prepare kits in large groups was the office space provided gratis by Harry J. Albert of San Rafael, which adjoins the Marin County Heart Assn. headquarters on Fourth Street.

Business Days Drive Leaders Are Announced

Business leaders who will participate in the "Heart Days for Business" drive, Feb. 6 to Feb. 15, were announced today by A. L. Nieri, vice president of the Crocker-Anglo National Bank in San Rafael.

They include C. F. Berlenbach Jr., manager Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., for Mill Valley area; John M. Lethbridge, manager, Crocker-Anglo National Bank, Kentfield-Ross; Theodore Craig, manager, Crocker-Anglo National Bank, San Rafael; Clifford E. Christenson, manager, Wells-Fargo Bank, Sausalito; Charles Corona, Crocker-Anglo National Bank, Novato; Joseph Crane, Bank of America, Fairfax area; Victor Calamusa, Bank of America, San Anselmo; Howard E. Langford, Crocker-Anglo National Bank, Belvedere-Tiburon; Robert Perata, Smith Clothiers, Corte Madera, and Charles Hunter, Bank of America, Larkspur.

The 1962 Heart Fund campaign will continue through February, reaching its peak on Heart Sunday, Feb. 25, when more than 1,900 volunteers will make personal calls at neighborhood homes.

Rezoning, Subdivision Plans On Tap In San Rafael

Two rezoning requests and several subdivision matters will come before the San Rafael Planning Commission at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall, Planning Director James R. Garrett announced today.

Second public hearing will be given an application by United Ambulance Co. to rezone a parcel of land at Lincoln Avenue and Pacheco Street from transient residential to general commercial.

First hearing will be given a bid by Leatherwood, Horler and Pedersen to rezone four parcels on La Vista Way off Lincoln Avenue from single family residential to duplex residential.

Application by Earl White for approval of a subdivision on three lots at 90 Irwin Street will be considered. A tentative map for a subdivision by Kaehler Farrar Development Co. on 16 lots between Sonoma and Fairfax streets will be discussed.

A bid by Kahler-Farrar for a resubdivision of two lots on Longwood Drive in the Rafael Racquet Club Estates will be discussed. A revised tentative map will be considered for subdivision of seven lots on Crestwood Drive extension in Newman Highlands. J. Warren Nute and Mrs. A. V. Newman are the applicants.

A revised tentative map for subdivision of Marin Bay Unit Two, a planned community district, by Dan Coleman Associates for Latipac-Perini Co. will be considered. It involves 301 lots. An earlier tentative map was approved last Nov. 14.

Plans by Cagwin, Seymour and Hamilton for subdivision of two lots of the Stratford property on Pomeroy Road in a single residential district will be considered.

1956 Convertible Reported Stolen

A 1956 white and pink Buick convertible was reported stolen from the garage of William Henry McColm of 1439 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, police said yesterday.

A tenant in the apartment building told police she thought she heard someone drive away in the car about 3:30 a.m. yesterday.

Police said the car may be damaged as matching paint was found on the garage door.

Telephone Almanac Now Available

"The Telephone Almanac for 1962", a catalogue of little known historical facts, is now available without charge at Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. business offices throughout Marin County.

J. J. Nichols, manager of the company's San Rafael business office, announced that there is a limited supply of the book which is designed for farmers, businessmen, housewives and students.

Education Board To Meet On Library Clerk, Teacher

Appointment of a teacher and a library clerk will be considered by the San Rafael Board of Education when it meets at 8:15 p.m. tomorrow at 215 Mission Avenue.

The board members will meet as a committee with the Teachers Salary Committee from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m.

Up for approval at the board meeting will be appointment of Mrs. Carole Seigle as sixth grade teacher at San Pedro School.

The board also will consider naming Mrs. Marion Willits, as a library, textbook and audio-visual clerk at Terra Linda High School.

Acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. Betty Taylor, cafeterfia helper at Terra Linda High, will be recommended.

Other items include confirmation of John Cassidy as inspector at Terra Linda Addition No. 4 and of an assignment for Abbot A. Hanks, Inc., to test materials used there.

A progress report will be made on negotiations to purchase the Henley property adjacent to West End School.

The board will take up a request by the San Rafael Little League to build a concession stand on the Davidson School site, and there will be a report on a meeting regarding school district reorganization.

Airman From Marin Is Honor Graduate

AMARILLO — Airman 3/C James L. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Davis of 2 Crown Street, San Rafael, has been named honor graduate of the Air Force supply specialists course at Amarillo Air Force Base, Texas.

Airman Davis attained a 95 average to win the honor. He is being assigned to Hamilton Air Force Base for duty.

Boyd Museum Enrollments Being Accepted

Enrollments for the spring program at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum (formerly the Junior Museum of Marin) are now being accepted at the museum, according to director Murray Dailey.

Children 8 years and older may take part in the program, which will include special after-school groups in the following subjects: rocks and minerals, insects, amphibians and reptiles, birds, tidepool animals, trees and flowers, shells and general nature study.

The groups will meet at the museum from 3:30 to 5 p.m. on weekdays (except Mondays) and on Saturday mornings. The work covered in the program will be followed up with summer field trips.

Children interested may notify the museum by postal card specifying their particular interests. Further information on the spring program can be obtained from Dailey at the museum.

AN ICY TRIP

Tiburon Inspected For Tam School Site

By CORENA GREEN

The icy blast of winter did not discourage 40 frozen faithful residents of the Tiburon Peninsula who turned out yesterday to help Tamalpais Union High School district trustees inspect possible high school sites on the peninsula.

First stop was the railway yard, number one choice of architect Ralph B. Priestly and Carl F. Gromme. They said it has enough unseable acreage, the climate is acceptable and availability to walking students excellent. But some are protesting that the land would be taken from the tax rolls with obvious results. No one knows for sure whether the land is available.

To the top of the ridge, where a high school site is shown on the master plan—which Priestly considers a dramatic site—trudged the faithful. Snow was clearly visible beyond San Francisco and winds lashed from two directions. To a man (and woman), the group unofficially voted it out.

"How would you like an 8 a.m. gym class up here?" asked Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization. The uplands site is third choice of the architect.

Off went the inspection party to second choice, tip of Strawberry Point, still cold, still windy, but desirable as a site because the area is a dead-end and excellent for supervision of a high school campus, Priestly explained.

The fact that the area is on the edge of the peninsula and would require transportation of a majority of pupils was judged its biggest disadvantage.

Despite the intense cold, a few hardy souls inspected a further site suggested by Mrs. J. Martin Rosse. It is a natural bowl behind the Bel Aire School. Those inspecting felt it had great possibility.

Reed Union School District Trustee Leo Souza urged consideration of waterfront property at the junction of Trestle Glen Road and Tiburon Boulevard. Fill would be required but Souza thought the cost would approximate acquisition of either the railway yard or Strawberry Point. The area meets all requirements asked by the Tamalpais board including central location, accessibility and adequate acreage when filled.

Acquisition of a site will depend upon availability, cost, and potential development. If financially feasible, the board will acquire both the site at Lagunitas and the Tiburon site, Trustee Delman D. Smith explained. No determination as yet has been made as to when a school will be built on either site, Smith said.

Apartment Plan Given Approval

Architectural approval for L. E. Weisenburg's 42-unit Marin Marina Apartments at 220 Canal Street was granted by the San Rafael Planning Commission at a special meeting Friday, Chairman Pat Hetherton announced today.

Kaehler-Farrar Development Co. was told to bring in more information on its request for architectural approval for a 41-unit apartment at Canal and Larkspur Streets and a 20-unit building at Canal and Fairfax Streets.

Melvin Marlow, seeking to convert an existing residence at the corner of Mission Avenue and Nye Street into two offices and four apartment units was requested to bring in more information.

Body Recovered Off Point Reyes

The body of a Santa Rosa fisherman, believed to be one of three men lost recently off Point Reyes, was found yesterday at Sand Beach across Tomales Bay from Lawson's landing.

Alvin Victor Dias, 43, was identified by his wife, Mary, after Coast Guardsmen retrieved the body offshore where it had been seen by a fisherman identifying himself as Jerome Ferroggairo.

In addition to his wife, Dias is survived by a young son and his parents, Manuel and Elsie Dias of Oakland.

A High Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Dias on Wednesday at 10 a.m. at St. Cyril's Church in Oakland. There will be a recitation of the Rosary at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Parent Funeral Chapel in Petaluma.

AN ICY TRIP

Tiburon Inspected For Tam School Site

By CORENA GREEN

The icy blast of winter did not discourage 40 frozen faithful residents of the Tiburon Peninsula who turned out yesterday to help Tamalpais Union High School district trustees inspect possible high school sites on the peninsula.

First stop was the railway yard, number one choice of architect Ralph B. Priestly and Carl F. Gromme. They said it has enough unseable acreage, the climate is acceptable and availability to walking students excellent. But some are protesting that the land would be taken from the tax rolls with obvious results. No one knows for sure whether the land is available.

To the top of the ridge, where a high school site is shown on the master plan—which Priestly considers a dramatic site—trudged the faithful. Snow was clearly visible beyond San Francisco and winds lashed from two directions. To a man (and woman), the group unofficially voted it out.

"How would you like an 8 a.m. gym class up here?" asked Mrs. Joseph B. Wallace of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization. The uplands site is third choice of the architect.

Off went the inspection party to second choice, tip of Strawberry Point, still cold, still windy, but desirable as a site because the area is a dead-end and excellent for supervision of a high school campus, Priestly explained.

The fact that the area is on the edge of the peninsula and would require transportation of a majority of pupils was judged its biggest disadvantage.

Despite the intense cold, a few hardy souls inspected a further site suggested by Mrs. J. Martin Rosse. It is a natural bowl behind the Bel Aire School. Those inspecting felt it had great possibility.

Reed Union School District Trustee Leo Souza urged consideration of waterfront property at the junction of Trestle Glen Road and Tiburon Boulevard. Fill would be required but Souza thought the cost would approximate acquisition of either the railway yard or Strawberry Point. The area meets all requirements asked by the Tamalpais board including central location, accessibility and adequate acreage when filled.

Acquisition of a site will depend upon availability, cost, and potential development. If financially feasible, the board will acquire both the site at Lagunitas and the Tiburon site, Trustee Delman D. Smith explained. No determination as yet has been made as to when a school will be built on either site, Smith said.

Right To Speak Up Must Also Be Respected Here

In totalitarian countries, the freedoms most severely curbed and most sorely missed are those guaranteed in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States: freedom of religion, of speech and of the press, and "the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

Under dictatorship criticism of any branch of the government—be it the military organization, the taxation structure, the school system, or whatever—is deemed subversive. This was so in Hitler's Germany, in Tojo's Japan, in Mussolini's Italy, in Stalin's Russia. It remains so in all those countries under dictatorships today.

We in America stand aghast at such "thought control" in other countries. What a pity if we should practice it ourselves!

Yet sometimes we do just that.

For instance, when a citizen criticizes something in our educational program, those in authority all too often try to silence him.

First he may be told that his criticism "embarrasses the administration." If that does not deter him, he may next be exposed to ridicule and villification by the very people entrusted with teaching our youth the meaning of democracy.

Such methods might be expected in Spain or Red China. They seem most out of place in a nation founded on and dedicated to the principle of free discussion and the democratic process.

It would be more in keeping with our professed principles for all to remember—and observe—the sentiment of Voltaire:

"I disagree with every word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

Robins That Sing In The Spring

It would not be true to say the Robin is everyone's favorite bird, but Mr. Robin is surely one of Marin's best-loved birds.

Some of our winter Robins regard Marin as a cold-weather resort, like Palm Springs or Miami. But others know a good things when they see it and make Marin their year-round home. Our lush, winter lawns provide an abundance of Robin filet mignon—earthworms.

Mr. Robin cocking his head at the green grass, listening for the sound made by moving earthworms, is almost as famous a picture as Washington crossing the Delaware.

Robins are happy, colorful birds. While they are a nuisance to the growers of berries or cherries, they more than compensate by their appetite for insects.

One lady in Pittsburgh learned to her sorrow that kind-looking people are not always honest.

A sympathetic man approached her as she stood in a department store burdened with several small parcels. "What you need," he observed, "is to put all your packages into one big shopping bag."

With that he went off in search of one. When he returned with a large empty bag, the trusting lady cheerfully handed him all her packages.

Then, while she was momentarily distracted, the "kind-looking" man vanished. That was the last she saw of 2 pairs of shoes, a skirt and other wearing apparel.

In these fast-spinning times when so much is at stake, do your part to protect yourself and others from being duped by those whose one objective is to deceive their fellow humans.

Japan Is Keeping An Eye On U.S. During Present Russian Oil Study

By PHIL NEWSOM

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The forest of television antennas rising above Tokyos' rooftops is symbolic of Japan's booming economy, the highest per-capita income in Asia.

But it also is symbolic of an inner ailment which has hit many another seemingly prosperous nation.

The Japanese have been spending more abroad than they have been taking in. At the same time, there are fears that Japanese industry is over expanded.

For 1961, her trade deficit approximated $1 billion and her foreign exchange holdings fell to less than $1.5 billion, considered a danger level.

Result has been strenuous efforts to increase Japan's share of world markets. These efforts have placed Premier Ikeda in the role of star salesman in visits to the United States and Canada and sent Japanese trade delegations on a global search for new business.

Now the Japanese look hopefully toward Russia.

High up on the agenda will be a proposal that Japan sell the Soviet Union materials for a Siberian oil pipeline.

The Japanese are aware that the United States is their best customer. But they also are aware that Japan's unfavorable balance of trade with Russia last year totalled an estimated $50 million. This they would like to correct.

The Russo-Japanese oil deal already has sparked controversy.

Japanese oil men have accused the United States of attempting to sabotage the project by threats to reduce oil purchase from Japanese firms.

THEY CLAIM a recent action by the U.S. Defense Department in cutting a Japanese petroleum concern from its list of jet fuel suppliers was an effort to make American displeasure known in advance of the Soviet-Japanese talks.

The United States position was that the Japanese firm was dealing heavily in Russian oil, and the Defense Department did not care to have Russian fuel in American jets.

Whatever the ultimate outcome, the Soviet negotiators will be trying to drive a wedge between Japan and its western partners.

IN A VISIT to Tokyo last August, Soviet First Deputy Premier Mikoyan suggested that Japan and the Soviet Union join in a trade offensive against European trading groups to counter "discrimination" from the European common market and the free trade association led by Great Britain. He also struck out against the U.S.-Japanese alliance.

Japanese trade with the Communist world long has been a sensitive point between Tokyo and Washington. But Tokyo knows the consequences would be disastrous if Washington slammed the economic door in Japan's face.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

More On Pt. Reyes Bill Situation

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In view of the recent action of the Board of Supervisors, who have now expressed their support of the Point Reyes bill, the following comments are offered to clarify the existing situation.

The several modifications in Point Reyes legislation and the hearings in the House and Senate which make up the interpretive background for the implementation of the bill have done two things:

First — The modifications have met nearly all local arguments against the bill. The total acreage under discussion remains the same, 53,000 acres. As being considered now, the proposed ranching area has been enlarged from 20,000 to 26,000 acres and all of the dairy ranches are included within it. Instead of condemnation with lease-back arrangements, the ranches now will remain in private ownership. In fact, the government will not be able to condemn any of the dairy ranches unless used or sold for purposes other than ranching.

The two radio stations that pay nearly half the taxes of this area remain in private ownership.

Keeping the ranches and other facilities in private ownership will reduce to a minimum any possible adverse effect on the tax basis of the county. It will also reduce any initial effect on the tax support of the area's school districts. The Vedanta religious retreat will remain in private ownership unless its use changes.

Second—These concessions have not impaired or detracted from the values of the recreational plan for the peninsula. From the first, all parties have stated a desire to keep the ranchers in operation. The modifications will insure this. The scenic beauty of the peninsula will be preserved, as will the economy of West Marin.

The public use areas to the south will provide adequate acreage for camping, hiking, trail riding, etc. Access to the northern beaches will be provided through several of the ranches.

From all points of view, we believe that every useful idea for a cooperative solution to insure the creation of this national recreation seashore area has been examined and, where possible, employed.

If this national recreation area follows the pattern seen in every other part of the country, Marin County will receive an income-producing industry (tourists) that will be of great importance to the economy of the entire county. In preserving this area for recreation we will have gained an industry and retained our dairies, too. The magnitude of this proposal and the inherent beauty of the peninsula will add to Marin's national reputation for effective planning and accomplishment.

Commuter Wants Span Letter Drive

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your January 15 editorial on "Commuters' Plea for Action on Bay Bridge Deserves Support" was most timely, and evoked a feeling of "what can I do as an individual to help get action started?"

I would like to suggest that you publish a list of key public officials that are in position to do something about this problem. This would enable all irritated and alarmed commuters, such as myself, to write these officials, urging immediate attention to this situation.

Long Hard Look At UN Is Due In Establishing U.S. Procedure

The mounting controversy about the UN, though it turns on the proposed purchase of $100 million worth of UN bonds, is plainly not a money question. By comparison with our expenditures for defense, or for agriculture, or even for foreign aid, the sums involved are very small.

The total budget of the UN for last year was $231.7 million. Our share was $102.1 million. This is one-third of 1 per cent of what we are spending on defense. Our share of the proposed bond issue is to be $100 million. If these bonds were never repaid, this would be a minute sum in our public expenditures.

The fact is that if the UN serves a good purpose in the pacification of the world, it is fabulously cheap at the price.

The real root of the controversy in Congress and in the country is whether the UN today serves a purpose which the United States has good reason to support and promote, or whether the UN is out of hand and should be cut down or even broken up. The movement to cut down the UN, if not dissolve it, is led by two great powers, the Soviet Union and France. The Soviet Union has the support of the Communist bloc. On the other side with France are Portugal and until recently Belgium. The United States is the great power which most actively supports the UN. Recently it has had qualified and reluctant support from Great Britain.

OUR RATHER lonesome eminence among the great powers has aroused, naturally and properly, much uneasiness and questioning even among the UN's old friends in this country. All this can not and should not be hushed up. The activities of the UN and our part in them should be investigated thoroughly and publicly.

What is called for is in effect a vote of confidence by Congress to determine what we should do and what we should not do in the UN as it now exists. Such a review and vote is in fact overdue. For the UN today is a very different organization from the one which the Senate, with only two dissenting votes, voted to join in 1945.

The UN today is the creation, in which we played the leading part, of those who in 1949 carried through amendments to make the General Assembly — where a two-thirds vote prevails—the dominant organ over the Security Council where the great powers have a veto. From that amendment, sponsored by the United States, have developed the anxieties which now disturb European and American opinion.

With the admission of the ex-colonial nations to the General Assembly a majority is able to exert strong pressure on the West European countries — Britain, France, Belgium, in a measure the Netherlands, and above all Portugal—which have not yet completed solution of the problems of colonialism.

It is being said that the President and Ambassador Stevenson have allowed the Afro-Asian majority in the Assembly to dictate our foreign policy and to alienate our old European allies. This is misleading. It does not take into account the real balance of interests and of forces within which, given the world-wide responsibilities of the United States, we have to act. We do not have the option, exercised recently by Britain and France, of abstaining and standing aside.

We cannot take the view that our allies in NATO have a blank check which requires us to support all their foreign policies, even those on which we are not consulted and over which we have no control. There are highly placed Americans who believe that it is our interest and duty to support the Portuguese position in Goa, in Mozambique, in Angola. But should we support Portugal in resisting all change?

'Twas A Night In Mill Valley— And Council Was In Session

IT WAS THE NIGHT of Jan. 17, 1962, in Mill Valley, U.S.A., a land where people still have the right of public forum. It was very cold outside.

We went upstairs in the Tudor-styled city hall, entered the council chambers counting the same old faces, the regulars. And then noticed new faces.

In 10 minutes the 132 seats were full in the room with the pitched ceiling and somber 1930-ish paintings of Mount Tamalpais. A few people stood at the rear of the room and a woman, seated in a wheelchair, was in the aisle. The lights were dim, the way lights are in city halls. These are the people and what they said:

PETER BEHR: "I was shocked, dismayed and disappointed in Mayor Huber's action endorsing Dr. Schwartz's activities . . . I trust the Mill Valley City Council will disassociate themselves from the mayor's unilateral action." (He referred to the action of backing a proclamation declaring Jan. 29-Feb. 2 "Anti-Communist Week" in Mill Valley.)

COUNCILMAN Michael Wornum: "Could you please read the proclamation?" The proclamation was read by Councilman George D. Monardo. The people were very still.

Then said Salem Rice: "It strikes me the Mayor can proclaim but the Council may possibly disclaim."

Speaking from the front row was William G. Phelps: "I'm a friend of Bob Huber. I see the pressures that place him in this position, yet I think there is a way to disassociate with this thing."

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks then asked City Atty. Leland H. Jordan if the Council had power to overrule. Jordan replied that there is no legal significance to the proclamation.

SHEEKS THEN moved that the Council disclaim any connection with the proclamation. The councilmen each said they were sorry Huber was not present.

Wornum said: "Fred Schwartz reflects the lunatic fringe of the John Birch Society."

"I speak in defense of Huber," said Monardo. "I don't know enough about it to vote one way or other. I'm not a Communist. I don't try to defend Communism. If Huber feels this is the vehicle he has to work with, that's his right."

Horace O. Schwartz: "I'm no relation to Fred Schwartz." (laughter), "but I've heard him speak . . . He is a very slick racketeer."

William Feeney: "Since the Council did not support it I think the Council should forget it."

Robert Winkleman: "The city attorney seems to think it falls in line with national Dog or Letter Writing Week. The matter has attracted this many people here on very short notice. Something should be said on behalf of the people of the city who feel otherwise." (Applause.)

Feeney: "In that case it should be published in the newspaper and get both the anti-Communists and pro-Communists down here."

A MAN at the foot of the room announced himself as Weber and said: "I'm speaking as an ex-Communist. A negative position will not enhance the political position of this country but a positive one will. If you were fighting measles, you wouldn't come out with an anti-measles act but rather something about developing scientific recourse against measles."

Beth Coffelt: "This sounds and smells and feels like a witch hunt coming. Is there anything we can do as a citizens committee to represent ourselves as being totally against the action of the mayor?"

The room was still, in seriousness. Jordan said: "You can express your opinion in any way at a public meeting or make your feelings known to any other media."

SHEEKS: "The citizens of Mill Valley are doing what they have an official right to do right now . . . I don't think anyone can deny that when the mayor issues a proclamation, in the minds of the public it has more effect than if Manny Gomez issued a proclamation." (Laughter.)

Ken Nelson: "There is a precedent. The Sunnyvale council disavowed the mayor's signing such a proclamation." (Applause.)

Monardo: "Call the mayor at his home to see if he can come down and defend himself."

The vote was 3-0 for disclaiming, Monardo abstaining. (Applause.) It was Mill Valley, U.S.A., the night of Jan. 17. It was very cold outside.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Ferry service between Richmond and San Rafael was discontinued for four hours one day, two hours the next, because of heavy wind and rain. But the skippers denied that waves had swept over the bows, and no automobile aboard was damaged.

House-to-house mail delivery was authorized for Novato. Five carriers were to serve the community on foot and by automobile.

20 YEARS AGO

Lloyd De La Montanya was appointed county fire chief by the board of supervisors, succeeding Edwin Gardner under whom he served as assistant. Pay was set at $225 monthly.

County Tax Collector M. F. Donahue said the total tax bill for the 1941-42 fiscal year worked out at $1,495,365.35, with cities paying $971,431 and unincorporated areas $523,407, plus $526 for road improvement district.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Allan Keller, surveying the college comic magazines, singles out these excerpts for special mention:

1. Cartoons: A man going into a hand laundry with a big sack full of hands.

I-22

2. A young man approached a cigar counter behind which stood a cute young thing and inquired, "Do you keep stationery?" Answered the c.y.t. thoughtfully, "Yes, up to a certain point. Then I just go all to pieces."

3. Vassar '55: I always say: give a man enough rope and he'll hang himself. Wellesley 57': I disagree. I gave my husband enough rope and he skipped.

4. Football coach: Miss Barber, what are you doing with that varsity letter on your sweater? Don't you know you're not supposed to wear that unless you've made the team?

Miss Barber: Well?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The forest of television antennas rising above Tokyos' rooftops is symbolic of Japan's booming economy, the highest per-capita income in Asia.

But it also is symbolic of an inner ailment which has hit many another seemingly prosperous nation.

The Japanese have been spending more abroad than they have been taking in. At the same time, there are fears that Japanese industry is over expanded.

For 1961, her trade deficit approximated $1 billion and her foreign exchange holdings fell to less than $1.5 billion, considered a danger level.

Result has been strenuous efforts to increase Japan's share of world markets. These efforts have placed Premier Ikeda in the role of star salesman in visits to the United States and Canada and sent Japanese trade delegations on a global search for new business.

Now the Japanese look hopefully toward Russia.

High up on the agenda will be a proposal that Japan sell the Soviet Union materials for a Siberian oil pipeline.

The Japanese are aware that the United States is their best customer. But they also are aware that Japan's unfavorable balance of trade with Russia last year totalled an estimated $50 million. This they would like to correct.

The Russo-Japanese oil deal already has sparked controversy.

Japanese oil men have accused the United States of attempting to sabotage the project by threats to reduce oil purchase from Japanese firms.

THEY CLAIM a recent action by the U.S. Defense Department in cutting a Japanese petroleum concern from its list of jet fuel suppliers was an effort to make American displeasure known in advance of the Soviet-Japanese talks.

The United States position was that the Japanese firm was dealing heavily in Russian oil, and the Defense Department did not care to have Russian fuel in American jets.

Whatever the ultimate outcome, the Soviet negotiators will be trying to drive a wedge between Japan and its western partners.

IN A VISIT to Tokyo last August, Soviet First Deputy Premier Mikoyan suggested that Japan and the Soviet Union join in a trade offensive against European trading groups to counter "discrimination" from the European common market and the free trade association led by Great Britain. He also struck out against the U.S.-Japanese alliance.

Japanese trade with the Communist world long has been a sensitive point between Tokyo and Washington. But Tokyo knows the consequences would be disastrous if Washington slammed the economic door in Japan's face.

More On Pt. Reyes Bill Situation

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In view of the recent action of the Board of Supervisors, who have now expressed their support of the Point Reyes bill, the following comments are offered to clarify the existing situation.

The several modifications in Point Reyes legislation and the hearings in the House and Senate which make up the interpretive background for the implementation of the bill have done two things:

First — The modifications have met nearly all local arguments against the bill. The total acreage under discussion remains the same, 53,000 acres. As being considered now, the proposed ranching area has been enlarged from 20,000 to 26,000 acres and all of the dairy ranches are included within it. Instead of condemnation with lease-back arrangements, the ranches now will remain in private ownership. In fact, the government will not be able to condemn any of the dairy ranches unless used or sold for purposes other than ranching.

The two radio stations that pay nearly half the taxes of this area remain in private ownership.

Keeping the ranches and other facilities in private ownership will reduce to a minimum any possible adverse effect on the tax basis of the county. It will also reduce any initial effect on the tax support of the area's school districts. The Vedanta religious retreat will remain in private ownership unless its use changes.

Second—These concessions have not impaired or detracted from the values of the recreational plan for the peninsula. From the first, all parties have stated a desire to keep the ranchers in operation. The modifications will insure this. The scenic beauty of the peninsula will be preserved, as will the economy of West Marin.

The public use areas to the south will provide adequate acreage for camping, hiking, trail riding, etc. Access to the northern beaches will be provided through several of the ranches.

From all points of view, we believe that every useful idea for a cooperative solution to insure the creation of this national recreation seashore area has been examined and, where possible, employed.

If this national recreation area follows the pattern seen in every other part of the country, Marin County will receive an income-producing industry (tourists) that will be of great importance to the economy of the entire county. In preserving this area for recreation we will have gained an industry and retained our dairies, too. The magnitude of this proposal and the inherent beauty of the peninsula will add to Marin's national reputation for effective planning and accomplishment.

Commuter Wants Span Letter Drive

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your January 15 editorial on "Commuters' Plea for Action on Bay Bridge Deserves Support" was most timely, and evoked a feeling of "what can I do as an individual to help get action started?"

I would like to suggest that you publish a list of key public officials that are in position to do something about this problem. This would enable all irritated and alarmed commuters, such as myself, to write these officials, urging immediate attention to this situation.

Long Hard Look At UN Is Due In Establishing U.S. Procedure

The mounting controversy about the UN, though it turns on the proposed purchase of $100 million worth of UN bonds, is plainly not a money question. By comparison with our expenditures for defense, or for agriculture, or even for foreign aid, the sums involved are very small.

The total budget of the UN for last year was $231.7 million. Our share was $102.1 million. This is one-third of 1 per cent of what we are spending on defense. Our share of the proposed bond issue is to be $100 million. If these bonds were never repaid, this would be a minute sum in our public expenditures.

The fact is that if the UN serves a good purpose in the pacification of the world, it is fabulously cheap at the price.

The real root of the controversy in Congress and in the country is whether the UN today serves a purpose which the United States has good reason to support and promote, or whether the UN is out of hand and should be cut down or even broken up. The movement to cut down the UN, if not dissolve it, is led by two great powers, the Soviet Union and France. The Soviet Union has the support of the Communist bloc. On the other side with France are Portugal and until recently Belgium. The United States is the great power which most actively supports the UN. Recently it has had qualified and reluctant support from Great Britain.

OUR RATHER lonesome eminence among the great powers has aroused, naturally and properly, much uneasiness and questioning even among the UN's old friends in this country. All this can not and should not be hushed up. The activities of the UN and our part in them should be investigated thoroughly and publicly.

What is called for is in effect a vote of confidence by Congress to determine what we should do and what we should not do in the UN as it now exists. Such a review and vote is in fact overdue. For the UN today is a very different organization from the one which the Senate, with only two dissenting votes, voted to join in 1945.

The UN today is the creation, in which we played the leading part, of those who in 1949 carried through amendments to make the General Assembly — where a two-thirds vote prevails—the dominant organ over the Security Council where the great powers have a veto. From that amendment, sponsored by the United States, have developed the anxieties which now disturb European and American opinion.

With the admission of the ex-colonial nations to the General Assembly a majority is able to exert strong pressure on the West European countries — Britain, France, Belgium, in a measure the Netherlands, and above all Portugal—which have not yet completed solution of the problems of colonialism.

It is being said that the President and Ambassador Stevenson have allowed the Afro-Asian majority in the Assembly to dictate our foreign policy and to alienate our old European allies. This is misleading. It does not take into account the real balance of interests and of forces within which, given the world-wide responsibilities of the United States, we have to act. We do not have the option, exercised recently by Britain and France, of abstaining and standing aside.

We cannot take the view that our allies in NATO have a blank check which requires us to support all their foreign policies, even those on which we are not consulted and over which we have no control. There are highly placed Americans who believe that it is our interest and duty to support the Portuguese position in Goa, in Mozambique, in Angola. But should we support Portugal in resisting all change?

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

'Twas A Night In Mill Valley—And Council Was In Session

IT WAS THE NIGHT of Jan. 17, 1962, in Mill Valley, U.S.A., a land where people still have the right of public forum. It was very cold outside.

We went upstairs in the Tudor-styled city hall, entered the council chambers counting the same old faces, the regulars. And then noticed new faces.

In 10 minutes the 132 seats were full in the room with the pitched ceiling and somber 1930-ish paintings of Mount Tamalpais. A few people stood at the rear of the room and a woman, seated in a wheelchair, was in the aisle. The lights were dim, the way lights are in city halls. These are the people and what they said:

PETER BEHR: "I was shocked, dismayed and disappointed in Mayor Huber's action endorsing Dr. Schwartz's activities . . . I trust the Mill Valley City Council will disassociate themselves from the mayor's unilateral action." (He referred to the action of backing a proclamation declaring Jan. 29-Feb. 2 "Anti-Communist Week" in Mill Valley.)

COUNCILMAN Michael Wornum: "Could you please read the proclamation?" The proclamation was read by Councilman George D. Monardo. The people were very still.

Then said Salem Rice: "It strikes me the Mayor can proclaim but the Council may possibly disclaim."

Speaking from the front row was William G. Phelps: "I'm a friend of Bob Huber. I see the pressures that place him in this position, yet I think there is a way to disassociate with this thing."

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks then asked City Atty. Leland H. Jordan if the Council had power to overrule. Jordan replied that there is no legal significance to the proclamation.

SHEEKS THEN moved that the Council disclaim any connection with the proclamation. The councilmen each said they were sorry Huber was not present.

Wornum said: "Fred Schwartz reflects the lunatic fringe of the John Birch Society."

"I speak in defense of Huber," said Monardo. "I don't know enough about it to vote one way or other. I'm not a Communist. I don't try to defend Communism. If Huber feels this is the vehicle he has to work with, that's his right."

Horace O. Schwartz: "I'm no relation to Fred Schwartz." (laughter), "but I've heard him speak . . . He is a very slick racketeer."

William Feeney: "Since the Council did not support it I think the Council should forget it."

Robert Winkleman: "The city attorney seems to think it falls in line with national Dog or Letter Writing Week. The matter has attracted this many people here on very short notice. Something should be said on behalf of the people of the city who feel otherwise." (Applause.)

Feeney: "In that case it should be published in the newspaper and get both the anti-Communists and pro-Communists down here."

A MAN at the foot of the room announced himself as Weber and said: "I'm speaking as an ex-Communist. A negative position will not enhance the political position of this country but a positive one will. If you were fighting measles, you wouldn't come out with an anti-measles act but rather something about developing scientific recourse against measles."

Beth Coffelt: "This sounds and smells and feels like a witch hunt coming. Is there anything we can do as a citizens committee to represent ourselves as being totally against the action of the mayor?"

The room was still, in seriousness. Jordan said: "You can express your opinion in any way at a public meeting or make your feelings known to any other media."

SHEEKS: "The citizens of Mill Valley are doing what they have an official right to do right now . . . I don't think anyone can deny that when the mayor issues a proclamation, in the minds of the public it has more effect than if Manny Gomez issued a proclamation." (Laughter.)

Ken Nelson: "There is a precedent. The Sunnyvale council disavowed the mayor's signing such a proclamation." (Applause.)

Monardo: "Call the mayor at his home to see if he can come down and defend himself."

The vote was 3-0 for disclaiming, Monardo abstaining. (Applause.) It was Mill Valley, U.S.A., the night of Jan. 17. It was very cold outside.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Ferry service between Richmond and San Rafael was discontinued for four hours one day, two hours the next, because of heavy wind and rain. But the skippers denied that waves had swept over the bows, and no automobile aboard was damaged.

House-to-house mail delivery was authorized for Novato. Five carriers were to serve the community on foot and by automobile.

20 YEARS AGO

Lloyd De La Montanya was appointed county fire chief by the board of supervisors, succeeding Edwin Gardner under whom he served as assistant. Pay was set at $225 monthly.

County Tax Collector M. F. Donahue said the total tax bill for the 1941-42 fiscal year worked out at $1,495,365.35, with cities paying $971,431 and unincorporated areas $523,407, plus $526 for road improvement district.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

1. Cartoons: A man going into a hand laundry with a big sack full of hands.

2. A young man approached a cigar counter behind which stood a cute young thing and inquired, "Do you keep stationery?" Answered the c.y.t. thoughtfully, "Yes, up to a certain point. Then I just go all to pieces."

3. Vassar '55: I always say: give a man enough rope and he'll hang himself. Wellesley 57': I disagree. I gave my husband enough rope and he skipped.

4. Football coach: Miss Barber, what are you doing with that varsity letter on your sweater? Don't you know you're not supposed to wear that unless you've made the team?

Miss Barber: Well?

ROD AND GUN EVENT

Capitol recording artist Lou Jacklich, who makes his accordion sound like a pipe organ, will entertain some 800 guests at the Marin Rod and Gun Club's 35th annual banquet next Saturday evening at the Bermuda Palms In San Rafael. Tickets are available from club members until Saturday, announced Gordon Dixon, co-chairman.

Rare History Of Marin Stolen

A rare original edition of "The History of Marin County" is missing from the county library.

Virginia Keating, librarian, reported the loss today to the sheriff's department. The leather-bound book published in 1880 by Munro-Fraser, was clearly marked "does not circulate."

"It was the heart of our county historical collection," Mrs. Keating said. "It's a very valuable book. We would be very thankful if whoever took it would just return it to the outside book drop at the library."

POET JEFFERS DIES IN CARMEL AT 75

CARMEL (UPI)—Funeral services were pending today for John Robinson Jeffers, the unofficial poet laureate of California in the 1920s and 1930s.

Jeffers died at his Carmel home, Tor House, Saturday at 75.

The poet was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., and moved to California in 1903. He later lived a short while in Seattle, but returned to California to make his home.

He was best known for his stark poetic tales of morbid psychology. Among his works were volumes entitled, "Dear Judas and Other Poems," "Descent to the Dead," and "Give Your Heart to the Hawks."

Although branded a mere "poetaster" by many of his contemporaries because of his iconoclastic viewpoint, Jeffers was regarded by others as a second Edgar Allan Poe.

In either case his long, sadistic narratives attracted wide attention, both for their asserted poetic value and for their purposeful morbidity.

Jeffers was no realist. He skipped back over realism, romanticism and neo-classicism to draw inspiration from the great Greek tragedies, adding to their horror the Freudian concept of sex as a motivating force in all human activity.

Jeffers was the son of William Hamilton Jeffers, a professor of ancient literature at Western Theological Seminary, and Annie Robinson Tuttle Jeffers.

During his first years at the University of Southern California, he met and fell in love with Una Call Kuster, whom he married in 1913.

A capable woman two years her husband's senior, Mrs. Jeffers gave direction to the young poet's literary ambitions.

The couple's two sons were born in 1916. Mrs. Jeffers died in 1950.

Jeffers had begun writing poetry early in his school years and he published his first volume, "Flagons and Apples" in 1912 while still a student at the University of Washington. In 1916 his second book of poetry, "Californians," was published. Neither achieved notable success.

It was not until eight years later that his next book, "Tamar and Other Poems," appeared. Printed at the author's expense, it was reissued in 1925 by a New York Publisher with the addition of new poems and titled "Roan Stallion, Tamar and other poems."

12 Alligators May Get Home In San Rafael

Twelve alligators at Steinhart Aquarium in San Francisco may find a temporary home in San Rafael when the aquarium closes down for a 1.6-million-dollar renovation in about a month.

John Cunningham and Steven Cohen of Dolphin of Marin, 3765 Redwood highway, San Rafael, have offered their kidney-shaped swimming pool as temporary abode for the alligators.

Dr. Earl S. Herald, curator of the California Academy of Sciences, says that the San Rafael offer is the best he's received so far. Dr. Herald said he sent a man down to the Dolphin of Marin to look over the facilities. The only problem may be the cold and nippy air in Marin during the winter months, said Dr. Herald.

The curator said he may send one alligator over to San Rafael on a trial basis to see how he works out in Marin surroundings.

"San Rafael has a heritage in alligators," the curator pointed out. Some years ago, Dr. Herald said he received a.. alligator from a San Rafael girl who had kept it for some time.

Dominican College Registration Set

Registration for the spring semester at the Dominican College of San Rafael will be held Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. in room 8 of the college's Guzman Hall.

Afternoon and evening courses in art, music, science, mathematics, education, psychology, and foreign languages will be offered during the session beginning Jan. 29.

Marinwood Directors To Meet On Fire Chief

Marinwood Community Services District directors will meet tonight to decide what to do about replacing Donald G. Ray as Marinwood fire chief.

Ray quit last Thursday night after the directors cut his salary by $50 per month and reduced him to acting chief.

At tonight's meeting, at 7:30 o'clock in Mary E. Silveira School, the directors will receive a report from the district's fire commission recommending the method of replacing the chief, and what salary should be offered. Ray received $506 per month.

Howard Council, community services district president, said only three of the department's 22 volunteer firemen have quit as a result of Ray's resignation.

J. W. Walsh Jr. of the Marinwood Citizens' Committee said the committee would be present in force at tonight's meeting. The committee is opposing bond issues of $366,000 for a recreation center and firehouse, and $82,000 for a community swimming pool, on which Marinwood residents will vote Feb. 20. It is also supporting ex-Chief Ray.

Council said volunteers are filling in the days off of John Cameron, the department's only remaining paid fireman, in manning the firehouse while the department is operating without a chief.

After The Snows— Clambake Proceeds

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—The $50,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf tournament got underway again this morning after a day and one hour's delay.

Players teed off an hour late this morning in the final round which was postponed until today because of yesterday's snow, ice, hail and rain.

Burly Joe Campbell of Pendleton, Ind., went out in an attempt to protect the two-troke lead he held over the field before the storm. If he can do that, he'll pick up a $5,000 check for first place.

Joe finished the first three rounds with a 54-hole score of 210 against a fast-closing 212 for veteran campaigner Doug Ford. At 214 were Ken Venturi and young Phil Rodgers.

Yesterday's scheduled final round was "snowed out." A two-inch blanket of hail and slush covered the greens and the dozen players who first teed off found they just couldn't putt. The greens were cleared, but before play was resumed another blanket fell.

"We just had to call it off," said PGA tournament director Joe Black. "There was no way to play it."

After play was called, the sun shone brilliantly for a few minutes. Then the rains and snow returned and there were heavy intermittent showers all day.

This is a tournament played for charity, but there will be very little in the way of financial help this year. From the start there has been nothing but trouble.

It all got underway when Crosby underwent a kidney operation a couple of weeks ago. Since then:

—British golf star Guy Wolstenholme tripped, fell, broke his arm, two days before the tourney started.

—A rain and wind storm ripped the three courses Friday, blowing over tents, trees and power lines and blacking out the entire area.

— And the first real snow fall on the sea-level courses in 38 years finally forced postponement of yesterday's round.

CANADA, U.S. GRID PLAYOFF IS PROPOSED

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A proposed international all-star game between players of the Canadian and American football leagues has won the the approval of two club heads.

The game was suggested by K.S. "Bud" Adams, owner of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

In Montreal, M. E. "Ted" Workman, president of the Montreal Alouettes, said he was in favor of the proposed game and believed it could lead eventually to a playoff for an international championship.

Workman gave his approval of Adams' proposal that part of the revenue go into the players' pension funds.

"In Canada we have been at a disadvantage because of the weather," he said. "We don't have time for extra post-season games that provide a source for a decent pension plan."

The Canadian league winds up its regular season in November.

U.S. Bobsled Duo 4th In World Meet

GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCH, Germany (UPI) — Nice try, but America's two-man bobsled team didn't quite make it, and Italy wound up with the world title for the second straight year.

The two American teams had been expected to finish far back in the pack but the U.S. No. 1 sled of Gary Sheffield of Lake Placid, N.Y., and Terry Tennant of Princeton, W.Va., occasioned considerable surprise by finishing fourth in 5:09.45 yesterday.

The second U.S. sled, manned by Lloyd Johnson and William Gleason, both of Lake Placid, wound up 13th, more or less as expected, with a clocking of 5:21.04.

Rinaldo Ruatti, a 32-year-old hotel owner from Cortina, and his brakeman, Enrico Delorenzo, retained the championship for Italy by winning the event in 5:03.73. They set a new track record on their way to the title when they made their third run in 1:14.26.

Ruatti thus succeeded former Italian star Eugenio Monti as the world kingpin. Monti, who has retired, held the previous record of 1:14.28 over the Olympic track.

Saints Continue Their Win Streak; 10 For 12 Now

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's Saints are setting a blistering pace in the American Basketball League. So is Kansas City.

Even though the Saints are undefeated in second half play, they share the first place lead in the Western Division with the Steers. Both clubs hold 5-0 records.

Paced by Ken Sears' 36 points last night, San Francisco whipped New York's winless Tapers 108-105. The Tapers, sparked by Sy Blye's 33 points and Roger Kaiser's 31, held a 59-58 halftime edge.

It was San Francisco's sixth straight win and the squad's 10th in 12 games since Al Brightman became coach.

Pro Bowlers Balk At 100 Bucks Per Week Offer

DALLAS (AP) — Curtis Sanford, owner of the Dallas franchise and co-founder of the National Bowling League, said last night that if the players do not accept the new contracts that have been offered to them the loop will probably fold.

In a drastic economy drive, the franchise owners meeting in Dallas, cut the five-day bowling schedule down to two and offered each bowler $100 weekly for his services.

The Dallas News said a survey of a number of the players showed they were going to insist that the clubs abide by the original contracts.

Asked what would happen if the bowlers do not agree to the new contract, Sanford said: "If they don't want it, then we will close it down. We'll fold the league. Chances are we would organize the league later with those who want to bowl.

"I realize it is a sacrifice on their part but there have also been extreme sacrifices on the part of the franchise owners," he said.

Braves Sign 1-2 Punch— Hank, Eddie

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Milwaukee's 1-2 power punch for almost a decade, Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews, have signed their contracts, joining a determined band of Braves itching to get the 1962 baseball campaign underway.

Apparently stung by last years 'fourth-place finish, the Braves have been rushing to the front office and inking contracts in rapid succession. The Aaron-Mathews signing on Saturday concluded a productive week for the Braves' brass.

Earlier last week, Warren Spahn, baseball's highest paid pitcher, and Del Crandall, No. 1 catcher in the National League until he developed a sore arm last season, came to terms. The Braves now have 18 satisfied signees.

The signing of Aaron and Mathews cost the Braves more than $100,000 but President John McHale wouldn't be pinned down on whether one or both received raises. Their salaries are reportedly between $55,000 and $60,000.

McHale said he didn't know of "any two sluggers who have been as devastating over the years as these two."

Aarond nad Mathews, who have formed the Braves' power trust since Aaron joined the club in 1954, did everything possible to lift the club last year. Aaron hit .327 with 34 homers and 120 runs batted in and Mathews batted .306 with 32 homers and 91 RBI.

Mathews smashed his 370th homer last year, his 10th in the N. L. and needs 30 to become only the seventh player to reach the 400-homer mark.

The world champion New York Yankees came up with a top name as ace reliever Luis Arroyo received a "substantial raise" to about $17,000. The 33-year-old was rewarded for his yeoman work in the 1961 campaign when he appeared in 65 games and compiled a 15-5 record.

Heavy Basketball Schedule For Marin Preps This Week

Marin County high school cagers hit the loop trail heavy this week with games tomorrow afternoon and again Friday.

Scheduled for Marin County Athletic League play tomorrow at 4 p.m. are San Rafael at Novato, Sir Francis Drake at Tamalpais, and Redwood at Marin Catholic.

(In other games this week the San Rafael Military Academy hosted Emery today; tomorrow Tomales will host St. Vincent's of Petluma at 4 p.m., and Terra Linda will go to San Rafael High to play that school's Jay Vees. Friday, Novato plays at Drake, Marin Catholic at San Rafael, and Tam at Redwood, 7 p.m. Tomales hosts Cloverdale, 7 p.m., Terra Linda hosts Drake Jay Vees, 4 p.m.)

The San Rafael Bulldogs will still be protecting their pure 3-0, won-loss record and are easily favored to beat Novato It may not be by a big margin and the way coach O. T. McAtee's Hornets have been performing, the Bulldogs will have a scrap on their hands. But coach Mike Diaz's squad has only been thrashed by Napa lately. Under the leadership of Bruce MacPhail and Rich Robertson, plus some early season work by injured Rod Monti, the Bulldogs have stacked up a 9-5 season record which should be 10-5 tomorrow evening.

Coach Carl Browns' Drake Pirates are due for one, and the way the Indians have been smacked lately, tomorrow may be the chance. Men to watch for the Hub crew will be workers of late Brad Busch, Bruce Ketron, and Mark Boero. For Tam Eillis Williams, Wilson Dolman, Art Foster and Pete Bardea.

The Indians will try to get out of their shared berth on a 1-2 record for third spot with Novato. Drake will be fighting like a trapped rat in that they are in the humble hole without a win in three outings. The salt in their wounds is that they are this season's MCAL tournament champs. They will no doubt be making the fur fly tomorrow.

A real good fight will ensue between Marin Catholic and Redwood. Both teams are tied for second place in the league standings with 2-1 records. Each will try to gain control of the runner-up spot. The games outcome is unpredictable. Coach Bernie Schneider of Marin has Jerry Smith, John Enos, and Ron O'Connell, who, when they get hot burn the baskets and stimulate the floor play. Coach Dick Hart also has a nest of sharpshooters who can get mean enough. Their leader is star guard Jay Johnson, and his aides are Pete Coy, Jud Longaker, Rick Skinner and Doug Detrick.

NORTH CAL TOURNAMENT

Tam, Novato Wrestlers Score Four Victories

Tamalpais and Novato high wrestlers together gathered up four wins and several other places in the annual Northern California Novice Wrestling tournament at Berkeley Saturday.

Coach Pete Belden's Indians picked up a win, four thirds and two fourths. Winner for Tam was Elmer Collett on a 6-0 decision. Taking thirds for the Mill Valley team were Fred Fellows, Steve Bush, Bob Pierce, Carl Geissinger and Creighton Wyatt. Fourth places were captured by Roger Bucholz and Ron Foster.

Novato sent 15 competitors who were among the 125 of the nine-school tourney. Coach Ralph Cutler's athletes picked up three firsts, two seconds and two thirds.

Winners for the north Marin school were Bill Carrigan (two falls and a decision), Rockne Wyatt (decision), and John Weers (two falls). Runners up in their classes were Mike Halvovich (a decision and a fall), Ron Heidinger (a fall and a decision in the unlimited class). Third spots went to Bob Renati (three decisions and a fall), Carl Jensen (a decision).

KTIM GAME BROADCASTS SCHEDULED

The KTIM Sportsmen's Club play-by-play broadcasts get underway for basketball season tomorrow when the Sir Francis Drake and Tamalpais high school Marin County Athletic League game is broadcast tomorrow at 3:55 p.m. live, from the Indians' court.

Ted Mitchell and Karl Barron will be describing the action. Other games scheduled for broadcast, announced Hugh Turner, station manager, are San Rafael at Tam, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. (KTIM-FM 100.9 mc.), and Marin Catholic-Redwood, Feb. 20, and Redwood-Tam, Feb. 23. An additional game broadcast is to be announced, said Turner.

Willie Mays Has Good Attitude As He Readies For Next Season

HANLEY

Willie Mays may be a seasoned campaigner with his first decade of baseball behind him but, like any rookie, he is getting that anxious feeling for spring training to start.

"If I didn't get that feeling about this time every year, I truly would begin to worry," said the $85,000 Giant centerfielder who is scheduled for a modest $5,000 boost this season.

"I love it. If I ever stopped loving the game it would get real hard. It's as much fun now as when I was a rookie."

Then he never has felt spring training was a grind?"

"Not to me, ever. I've always looked forward to it. How about that snow this year! Why, it even got way down south this time. I know, I just came from there."

This week Mays plans a brief trip to Los Angeles to visit friends and then he will return to San Francisco to workout with Willie McCovey on the Buchanan Street YMCA basketball court.

"I made the workout date with McCovey during the Christmas holidays when he also was in Alabama visiting his family," said Mays.

While Mays hasn't exactly taken McCovey under his wing, he is giving McCovey every bit of encouragement possible. Mays thinks 1962 might be the year for McCovey to do wondrous things once again with his bat.

"McCOVEY found himself again last August when he got back in the lineup after the Alous, first Matty, then Felipe, were injured," said Mays. "He was hitting like he did during his big '59 rookie year. I felt sure after his big month in August he wouldn't be offered in the draft for the two new clubs."

Mays never makes predictions so it is pointless to ask him to guess the outcome of the 1962 National League race. However, he agrees with Alvin Dark that the Giants have a "good chance."

He feels that his .308 last year, including 40 homers, four of which he belted in one game against the Braves, is deserving of a modest pay boost although he hasn't yet talked it over with Horace Stoneham.

"I've never worried about my contract and never had any trouble with Mr. Stoneham who has been good to me," says Mays. "I understand he is at his Phoenix home now. When I get back from Los Angeles I may have a telephone call from him."

THE ANTICIPATED $5,000 increase to $90,000 will keep Mays the highest paid player in baseball, $5,000 more than Mickey Mantle signed for this season.

Does Mays have ambitions of being baseball's next $100,000 player?

"Maybe I can work up to it if I have a good year," he said.

Austrians Steal Show In Sugar Bowl Races

SUGAR BOWL (UPI)—Austrian skiers stole the spotlight yesterday in the Sugar Bowl international ski race—the second meet of the 1962 professional tour.

Pepi Gramshammer of Kufsteim, Austria, won his fourth straight pro race by finishing first in the slalom, with a combined time of 2:00.9 in two runs. The victory was worth $1,000 for Gramshammer, currently a ski instructor at Sun Valley, Idaho.

Christian Pravda, Austrian national champion nine times, won $650 for second place with a 2:02.1 clocking.

Best unofficial time of the day, however, was turned in by Andrew Molterer of Austria who completed the first run in 56.9. But the 1956 Olympic silver medal winner was disqualified because he missed a gate on the second run.

The event, sponsored by the International Professional Ski Racers Assn., was scheduled to start Saturday — but weather conditions forced a postponement.

The third race on the tour by the pro group will be held next Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Heavenly Valley, Calif., The three-day event will feature 10 races.

Fairfax Little League Meeting Set Thursday

A meeting of the Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow Little and Junior baseball league will be held Thursday, 8 p.m., in the multi-purpose room of Oak Manor School in Fairfax, announced Peter Forni, official, who added that 21 teams of 300 boys participated last season.

Heavyweights Tom McNeeley Jr. of Arlington, Mass., and British champion Henry Cooper, who were flattened in key fights last month, start their comebacks this week.

McNeeley, who tasted his first defeat when he was bounced out by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in the fourth round at Toronto Dec. 4, begins anew tonight at Providence, R.I. He takes on a former sparring partner, Don Prout of Providence, in a 10-rounder.

Cooper, the British and British Empire titleholder, lost a June crack at Patterson when he was knocked out in the second round by Zora Folley on Dec. 5 in London. His comeback opponent is Tony Hughes of Cleveland at London.

After The Snows— Clambake Proceeds

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—The $50,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf tournament got underway again this morning after a day and one hour's delay.

Players teed off an hour late this morning in the final round which was postponed until today because of yesterday's snow, ice, hail and rain.

Burly Joe Campbell of Pendleton, Ind., went out in an attempt to protect the two-stroke lead he held over the field before the storm. If he can do that, he'll pick up a $5,000 check for first place.

Joe finished the first three rounds with a 54-hole score of 210 against a fast-closing 212 for veteran campaigner Doug Ford. At 214 were Ken Venturi and young Phil Rodgers.

Yesterday's scheduled final round was "snowed out." A two-inch blanket of hail and slush covered the greens and the dozen players who first teed off found they just couldn't putt. The greens were cleared, but before play was resumed another blanket fell.

"We just had to call it off," said PGA tournament director Joe Black. "There was no way to play it."

After play was called, the sun shone brilliantly for a few minutes. Then the rains and snow returned and there were heavy intermittent showers all day.

This is a tournament played for charity, but there will be very little in the way of financial help this year. From the start there has been nothing but trouble.

It all got underway when Crosby underwent a kidney operation a couple of weeks ago. Since then:

—British golf star Guy Wolstenholme tripped, fell, broke his arm, two days before the tourney started.

—A rain and wind storm ripped the three courses Friday, blowing over tents, trees and power lines and blacking out the entire area.

— And the first real snow fall on the sea-level courses in 38 years finally forced postponement of yesterday's round.

COLD GREENS — Greenskeepers rake snow from the first green at Pebble Beach Golf Course yesterday, but it was futile as more snow came, forcing the final round to be played today. And even it started an hour late this morning. The golfers normally play in high wids and rain, but snow was the last straw. (AP Wirephoto)

CANADA, U.S. GRID PLAYOFF IS PROPOSED

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A proposed international all-star game between players of the Canadian and American football leagues has won the the approval of two club heads.

The game was suggested by K.S. "Bud" Adams, owner of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

In Montreal, M. E. "Ted" Workman, president of the Montreal Alouettes, said he was in favor of the proposed game and believed it could lead eventually to a playoff for an international championship.

Workman gave his approval of Adams' proposal that part of the revenue go into the players' pension funds.

"In Canada we have been at a disadvantage because of the weather," he said. "We don't have time for extra post-season games that provide a source for a decent pension plan."

The Canadian league winds up its regular season in November.

Braves Sign 1-2 Punch— Hank, Eddie

Milwaukee's 1-2 power punch for almost a decade, Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews, have signed their contracts, joining a determined band of Braves itching to get the 1962 baseball campaign underway.

Apparently stung by last years 'fourth-place finish, the Braves have been rushing to the front office and inking contracts in rapid succession. The Aaron-Mathews signing on Saturday concluded a productive week for the Braves' brass.

Earlier last week, Warren Spahn, baseball's highest paid pitcher, and Del Crandall, No. 1 catcher in the National League until he developed a sore arm last season, came to terms. The Braves now have 18 satisfied signees.

The signing of Aaron and Mathews cost the Braves more than $100,000 but President John McHale wouldn't be pinned down on whether one or both received raises. Their salaries are reportedly between $55,000 and $60,000.

McHale said he didn't know of "any two sluggers who have been as devastating over the years as these two."

Aarond nad Mathews, who have formed the Braves' power trust since Aaron joined the club in 1954, did everything possible to lift the club last year. Aaron hit .327 with 34 homers and 120 runs batted in and Mathews batted .306 with 32 homers and 91 RBI.

Mathews smashed his 370th homer last year, his 10th in the N. L. and needs 30 to become only the seventh player to reach the 400-homer mark.

The world champion New York Yankees came up with a top name as ace reliever Luis Arroyo received a "substantial raise" to about $17,000. The 33-year-old was rewarded for his yeoman work in the 1961 campaign when he appeared in 65 games and compiled a 15-5 record.

NORTH CAL TOURNAMENT

Tam, Novato Wrestlers Score Four Victories

Tamalpais and Novato high wrestlers together gathered up four wins and several other places in the annual Northern California Novice Wrestling tournament at Berkeley Saturday.

Coach Pete Belden's Indians picked up a win, four thirds and two fourths. Winner for Tam was Elmer Collett on a 6-0 decision. Taking thirds for the Mill Valley team were Fred Fellows, Steve Bush, Bob Pierce, Carl Geissinger and Creighton Wyatt. Fourth places were captured by Roger Bucholz and Ron Foster.

Novato sent 15 competitors who were among the 125 of the nine-school tourney. Coach Ralph Cutler's athletes picked up three firsts, two seconds and two thirds.

Winners for the north Marin school were Bill Carrigan (two falls and a decision), Rockne Wyatt (decision), and John Weers (two falls). Runners up in their classes were Mike Halvovich (a decision and a fall), Ron Heidinger (a fall and a decision in the unlimited class). Third spots went to Bob Renati (three decisions and a fall), Carl Jensen (a decision).

KTIM GAME BROADCASTS SCHEDULED

The KTIM Sportsmen's Club play-by-play broadcasts get underway for basketball season tomorrow when the Sir Francis Drake and Tamalpais high school Marin County Athletic League game is broadcast tomorrow at 3:55 p.m. live, from the Indians' court.

Ted Mitchell and Karl Barron will be describing the action. Other games scheduled for broadcast, announced Hugh Turner, station manager, are San Rafael at Tam, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. (KTIM-FM 100.9 mc.), and Marin Catholic-Redwood, Feb. 20, and Redwood-Tam, Feb. 23. An additional game broadcast is to be announced, said Turner.

Willie Mays Has Good Attitude As He Readies For Next Season

HANLEY

Willie Mays may be a seasoned campaigner with his first decade of baseball behind him but, like any rookie, he is getting that anxious feeling for spring training to start.

"If I didn't get that feeling about this time every year, I truly would begin to worry," said the $85,000 Giant centerfielder who is scheduled for a modest $5,000 boost this season.

"I love it. If I ever stopped loving the game it would get real hard. It's as much fun now as when I was a rookie."

Then he never has felt spring training was a grind?"

"Not to me, ever. I've always looked forward to it. How about that snow this year! Why, it even got way down south this time. I know, I just came from there."

This week Mays plans a brief trip to Los Angeles to visit friends and then he will return to San Francisco to workout with Willie McCovey on the Buchanan Street YMCA basketball court.

"I made the workout date with McCovey during the Christmas holidays when he also was in Alabama visiting his family," said Mays.

While Mays hasn't exactly taken McCovey under his wing, he is giving McCovey every bit of encouragement possible. Mays thinks 1962 might be the year for McCovey to do wondrous things once again with his bat.

"McCOVEY found himself again last August when he got back in the lineup after the Alous, first Matty, then Felipe, were injured," said Mays. "He was hitting like he did during his big '59 rookie year. I felt sure after his big month in August he wouldn't be offered in the draft for the two new clubs."

Mays never makes predictions so it is pointless to ask him to guess the outcome of the 1962 National League race. However, he agrees with Alvin Dark that the Giants have a "good chance."

He feels that his .308 last year, including 40 homers, four of which he belted in one game against the Braves, is deserving of a modest pay boost although he hasn't yet talked it over with Horace Stoneham.

"I've never worried about my contract and never had any trouble with Mr. Stoneham who has been good to me," says Mays. "I understand he is at his Phoenix home now. When I get back from Los Angeles I may have a telephone call from him."

THE ANTICIPATED $5,000 increase to $90,000 will keep Mays the highest paid player in baseball, $5,000 more than Mickey Mantle signed for this season.

Does Mays have ambitions of being baseball's next $100,000 player?

"Maybe I can work up to it if I have a good year," he said.

Austrians Steal Show In Sugar Bowl Races

SUGAR BOWL (UPI)—Austrian skiers stole the spotlight yesterday in the Sugar Bowl international ski race—the second meet of the 1962 professional tour.

Pepi Gramshammer of Kufsteim, Austria, won his fourth straight pro race by finishing first in the slalom, with a combined time of 2:00.9 in two runs. The victory was worth $1,000 for Gramshammer, currently a ski instructor at Sun Valley, Idaho.

Christian Pravda, Austrian national champion nine times, won $650 for second place with a 2:02.1 clocking.

Best unofficial time of the day, however, was turned in by Andrew Molterer of Austria who completed the first run in 56.9. But the 1956 Olympic silver medal winner was disqualified because he missed a gate on the second run.

The event, sponsored by the International Professional Ski Racers Assn., was scheduled to start Saturday — but weather conditions forced a postponement.

The third race on the tour by the pro group will be held next Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Heavenly Valley, Calif., The three-day event will feature 10 races.

Heavyweights Tom McNeeley Jr. of Arlington, Mass., and British champion Henry Cooper, who were flattened in key fights last month, start their comebacks this week.

McNeeley, who tasted his first defeat when he was bounced out by heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson in the fourth round at Toronto Dec. 4, begins anew tonight at Providence, R.I. He takes on a former sparring partner, Don Prout of Providence, in a 10-rounder.

Cooper, the British and British Empire titleholder, lost a June crack at Patterson when he was knocked out in the second round by Zora Folley on Dec. 5 in London. His comeback opponent is Tony Hughes of Cleveland at London.

Stanford To Prove Its Worth Tonight

U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Stanford Indians, having confirmed the suspicion that they are serious contenders in the Big Five basketball derby, go out to banish all doubt tonight when they host Washington State.

The Indians quieted a few skeptics Saturday when they dealt Washington a 64-59 setback at Palo Alto. Washington had taken the measure of Big Five favorite Southern California earlier.

Most of the West Coast cagers wrench themselves away from their books and trot back onto the courts this week after a break for final examinations. Southern California, California, San Jose State and Santa Clara are the major coast teams still busy with tests.

On the Big Five program is a weekend series between Stanford and Washington at Seattle where the Huskies, as USC learned most recently, are generally irritable. UCLA, currently atop the conference heap with a 3-0 mark, entertains Texas Tech Friday and Saturday.

The West Coast Athletic Conference only features two outside tilts — University of the Pacific at Fresno State Friday and San Francisco State at the University of San Francisco Saturday.

Stanford's win Saturday gave the redman a 2-0 scoresheet in Big Five play. The Indians got off to a wobbly start but took the lead for good midway through the first half on a jump shot by guard Doug Clementson.

Stanford's biggest bulge was a 12-point lead in the second half, before Washington rallied to close the gap to five points.

INTERNATIONAL 'LEND-LEASE' IN BASEBALL

HONOLULU (UPI)—The Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League initiated a baseball "lend-lease" program yesterday when they assigned Al Grunwald to the Taiyo Whales of the Japan Professional League.

Islander owner Nick Morgan Jr. announced that Grunwald, 31, will be leased to Taiyo under a two-year contract with right of recall by Hawaii at the termination of the contract.

Grunwald—who can pitch, play first base and the outfield—won 11 games and lost eight for Shreveport of the Southern Assn. last season. He also hit .275 and walloped 10 home runs.

Morgan said last year he was considering and exchange program with teams in Japan.

Chamberlain Wows 'Em In N.Y., Scores 62

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Performing at a neutral site in Utica, N.Y., Chamberlain flicked in 62 points yesteraday to lead the Philadelphia Warriors to a 139-132 overtime victory over the Syracuse Nationals in a National Basketball Assn. contest.

Chamberlain, who also grabbed 25 rebounds, sent the game into overtime when he sank a pair of foul shots with 35 seconds to go in regulation time.

It was the 30th time this season that Wilt has scored 50 or more points.

The Detroit Pistons handed the Boston Celtics one of their rare losses, 124-120, as the Piston backcourt pair of Gene Shue and Johnny Egan acounted for 51 points. Shue collected 30 points and Eagan 21.

Tommy Heinsohn of the Celtics led all scorers with 43 points, 19 of which came in the last eight minutes of play. The loss was only the second at Boston Garden for the Celtics this season and only their ninth in 46 starts.

The St. Louis Hawks scored their third straight victory by defeating the New York Knickerbockers, 124-113, although Bob Pettit was held to a season low of 14 points.

Jerry West scored six of his team's 13 points in an overtime period while leading the Los Angeles Lakers to a 112-111 win over the Chicago Packers.

Daredevil 1st Yank To Win Austria Race

KITZBUEHEL, Austria (UPI)—You have to call Chuck Ferries of Houghton, Mich., a "daredevil," because there is no other way to explain his surprise victory over Europe's leading skiers in the slalom event of the Hahnenkamm Trophy Races.

The 23-year-old Ferries, overlooked by most observers in favor of the more successful Bud Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., among the American contingent, not only did better than his own teammates but whipped the world's best yesterday in winning the slalom in a sparkling 146.9 seconds.

Ferries, a pupil of Willy Schaeffler at Denver University, trailed seven other racers by almost three seconds after the first run, but his record 69.7-second run down the 76-gate course was just too much for the competition.

CHAMP BEATEN

Pepi Stiegler of Austria, last year's world slalom champion, was among the beaten as Guy Perrillat of France finished second in 147.6 and Austria's Gerhard Nening was tied for third in 148.1.

"I had to take every possible risk in the second run in order to win," said the modest Ferries, who became the first American ever to win the slalom here. "You can't race cautiously if you are three seconds behind the world's best racers."

While Werner and Jim Huega of Tahoe City were disregarded in the post-race appraisals, local observers were touting Ferries as the man to beat in the world championships at Chamonix, France, next month.

Car Experiment Ends In Disaster

The experiment ended in utter disaster.

According to San Rafael police, Miss Vasil, 28, and a friend, Lawrence Aguis, 28, both of San Francisco, made a round of the bars in San Rafael Saturday night, starting home about 2 a.m. yesterday.

They got only as far as Lincoln Avenue at Second Street where their car crashed into a light pole in the Union Oil Co. service station where, Miss Vasil said, her foot hit the accelerator instead of the brake as she was attempting to turn around.

Police found Aguis "covered with blood', the result of having put his head through the windshield. Miss Vasil, police said, was found lying on the ground beside the car.

Both were treated at San Rafael General Hospital for cuts and bruises. Aguis was held for observation and was in good condition yesterday, hospital attendants said.

Miss Vasil was booked at the county jail for driving while under the influecne of liquor and for not having a drivers license. Freed on $525 bail, she was ordered to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

When asked why she did not have a license, Miss Vasil indicated she had never had occasion to apply for one. It was the first time she had ever driven, she said.

Word Recognition Plan Will Be Presented

The case for the "whole word recognition" method of teaching reading will be presented in San Rafael tonight by Dr. Walter McHugh of Alameda State College.

Dr. McHugh will address a meeting of the San Rafael Curriculum Committee at 7:30 p.m. The meeting has been called for the city schools board room at 215 Mission Avenue, but if the crowd is too large for that room it will move to the San Rafael High School Little Theater, said Supt. Bert C. Corona.

The little theater was nearly filled two weeks ago for talks by Dr. Grace Brown of City College of San Francisco and Mrs. Henrietta Koch of Berkeley, both of whom were critical of the "whole word recognition" or "look-say method and urged a return to the phonetic approach to learning to read.

Drunken Driving Charge Dismissed

A drunken driving charge was dismissed Friday against Patricia Lawler Coy, 37, of 251 Richardson Drive, Mill Valley, who was involved in an auto accident Jan. 5.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court dismissed the charge on the recommendation of Deputy Dist. Atty. Thomas T. Storer, who said there is lack of evidence she was intoxicated.

Mrs. Coy's auto hit a parked car on Strawberry Drive.

Dairymen's Election Slated For Tomorrow

Election of officers for 1962 will be held at the annual meeting of the Sonoma, Marin and Napa County district of the Associated Dairymen of Oakland at the Green Mill Restaurant, Cotati, at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The Associated Dairymen is an organization of milk producers who supply the East Bay market.

Art Group Votes $1,000 For Center

Stinson Beach Allied Arts voted at its luncheon meeting Friday to contribute $1,000 to the Stinson Beach Community Center, Mrs. Lewis Nye, president, announced today.

The center has a firehouse and center building and is completing a church. The money was voted to be used by the center wherever needed to buy furniture and other equipment for the project.

Passive Defense Talk Set Tonight

Passive defense measures initiated at Hamilton Air Force Base will be discussed by Col. Harvey E. Henderson, commander of the 78th Fighter Wing at the base, in a talk to a meeting of the Mill Valley Post No. 284 of the American Legion tonight.

The meeting will be in the legion hall at 469 Miller Avenue at 8 p.m.

The program chairman, Marin Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims, announced that the ladies auxiliary is also invited to the meeting.

Massive Colorado Avalanche Kills Six

TWIN LAKES, Colo. (AP) — A giant mass of snow slid down Colorado's highest mountain yesterday, sweeping over four houses, and snuffing out at least six lives.

Officials estimated more than 200,000 tons of snow plunged down the southern slope of 14,341-foot Mount Elbert in a three and one-half mile run. It engulfed the western end of Twin Lakes, a central Rocky Mountain village 140 miles southwest of Denver. The avalanche was more than 300 yards wide and 15 feet deep.

One family was wiped out. G. L. Shelton, 50; his wife Marie, 40; their son Steve, 14, and daughters Linda, 9, and Vickie, 8, all perished.

Two persons were rescued from the buried wreckage of their home. William Adamich, 35, and his wife Barbara, 30, were hospitalized in Leadville with frostbite and possible internal injuries. Their son, Michael, 10, was missing.

The other two houses were vacant.

About 600 persons worked more than six hours in the frigid mountain air probing the wreckage.

A neighbor, Nels Lindstone, 66, said that when he awoke at 8 a.m. he looked out of a window and saw only snow and wreckage where the houses had stood.

Lindstone said he tried to telephone the sheriff in Leadville, but telephone lines were down. He hailed a passing motorist to notify authorities.

Replacement For Education Board?

No recommendation has been made for a new member of the Marin County Board of Education, but the committee screening candidates hopes to have a choice by Feb. 5, chairman Harry Press of the board's replacement committee said Saturday. The committee met Friday and discussed applicants.

Feb. 5 is when the board will meet and consider the recommendation of the committee. The new board member is being selected to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Theodore V. Cole of Novato. He will be elected by the remaining board members.

The center has a firehouse and center building and is completing a church. The money was voted to be used by the center wherever needed to buy furniture and other equipment for the project.

Passive Defense Talk Set Tonight

Passive defense measures initiated at Hamilton Air Force Base will be discussed by Col. Harvey E. Henderson, commander of the 78th Fighter Wing at the base, in a talk to a meeting of the Mill Valley Post No. 284 of the American Legion tonight.

The meeting will be in the legion hall at 469 Miller Avenue at 8 p.m.

The program chairman, Marin Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims, announced that the ladies auxiliary is also invited to the meeting.

Massive Colorado Avalanche Kills Six

TWIN LAKES, Colo. (AP) — A giant mass of snow slid down Colorado's highest mountain yesterday, sweeping over four houses, and snuffing out at least six lives.

Officials estimated more than 200,000 tons of snow plunged down the southern slope of 14,341-foot Mount Elbert in a three and one-half mile run. It engulfed the western end of Twin Lakes, a central Rocky Mountain village 140 miles southwest of Denver. The avalanche was more than 300 yards wide and 15 feet deep.

One family was wiped out. G. L. Shelton, 50; his wife Marie, 40; their son Steve, 14, and daughters Linda, 9, and Vickie, 8, all perished.

Two persons were rescued from the buried wreckage of their home. William Adamich, 35, and his wife Barbara, 30, were hospitalized in Leadville with frostbite and possible internal injuries. Their son, Michael, 10, was missing.

The other two houses were vacant.

About 600 persons worked more than six hours in the frigid mountain air probing the wreckage.

A neighbor, Nels Lindstone, 66, said that when he awoke at 8 a.m. he looked out of a window and saw only snow and wreckage where the houses had stood.

Lindstone said he tried to telephone the sheriff in Leadville, but telephone lines were down. He hailed a passing motorist to notify authorities.

Replacement For Education Board?

No recommendation has been made for a new member of the Marin County Board of Education, but the committee screening candidates hopes to have a choice by Feb. 5, chairman Harry Press of the board's replacement committee said Saturday. The committee met Friday and discussed applicants.

Feb. 5 is when the board will meet and consider the recommendation of the committee. The new board member is being selected to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Theodore V. Cole of Novato. He will be elected by the remaining board members.

Friends Of Arequipa To Give Annual Luncheon On Feb. 2

The ten units of Marin Foundation-Friends of Arequipa will be represented at the organization's annual business meeting and luncheon Feb. 2 at the Meadow Club in Fairfax.

Mrs. George Britton, president of the 10 year old service organization, will call the meeting to order at 10 a.m. and the day's events will conclude with luncheon served at noon to members and their guests.

The past year's activities, which include services for Lucas Valley Hospital, Ross Terrace, San Rafael General Hospital and Juvenile Hall, will be discussed by Mrs. Max Johansen, of San Rafael, Unit Services Chairman.

Mrs. Trygve Larson of San Rafael, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of proposed officers for 1962-63. Other members of the nominating committee are Mesdames Robert Joses, Howard Dunlap, R. L. Baxter, George Herrero, Andrew Gladney and Melville Baruh.

Mrs. John Finn III of Mill Valley, chairman of the grant committee, will report of grants totailng $5,750 to be presented, and to introduce the recipients. Serving on the grant committee is a representative of each unit, Mesdames Victor Kagan, Acacia Unit; Ross Pignaz, Baywood Unit; Raymond Gordon, Cascade Unit; Harry Diner, Madrone Unit; Ralph Tierney, Millwood Unit; Leonard Ravoni, Sequoia Unit; Robert Dreher, Sycamore Unit; James Heynemann, Driftwood Unit; Howard Dunlap, Green Oaks Unit; Ralston Hodgson, Toyon Unit; F. W. Farley, chairman of the finance committee and George Britton, Sequoia Unit.

Mrs. Clyde Healy of Greenbrae, chairman of the luncheon, has planned lunch around a Valentine Day theme. Assisting Mrs. Healy are Mrs. Edward Calla and Mrs. Mervin Mazza and members of the Green Oaks Unit.

'Winter Report' In Fashion Set For Sausalito Showing

The New March of Dimes schusses into the spotlight on Thursday at Fashions With a View from the Ondine, the subject of a fashionable "Winter Report" on snow, ski—and March of Dimes weather conditions. The show will feature the newest ski and winter toggery from at home and abroad.

The special "guests with a viewpoint" will be skiing enthusiasts, the Byron Nishkians, joined by Mrs. Walter Johnson, chairman of the Mothers March, and William Wolfson, county-wide chairman for the New March of Dimes.

Mr. Nishkian is president of the Far West Ski Assn. and with his wife will leave shortly for skiing on the continent. Then they will go to Poland, where he will be a delegate to the Federation International de Ski where representatives from the Communist and Free World will plan the Olympic Winter Games.

Promenading the "Winter Report" will be Yvonni Buchi, daughter of the Swiss Consul General in San Francisco, Mesdames John Jansheski, Hal Wagner and John Bellamy Jr. Pamela Schmidt, a student at San Rafael High School, will be a special guest model for the 12:30 p.m. luncheon salute to the March of Dimes. Pamela once wore braces and walked on crutches as a result of polio but now is able to lead a normal life.

Marinites With High Hopes Form Group To Aid Hospital

Because a group of Marinites has high hopes and a wish to help, a new chapter of the City of Hope Hospital at Duarte has been formed here.

Mrs. Evan Goldenberg of Ross, who has been chosen president for the group's first year, will have as her officers Mesdames Fred Pill of San Rafael, secretary and Kurt Rosenthal of San Rafael, treasurer.

The City of Hope at Duarte is a free and nonsectarian National Medical Center which is devoted to patient care, research, and medical attention in cancer and the leukemias, and heart, blood, chest and hereditary maladies.

President Bobbie Goldenberg explained that the Hi-Hopes of Marin was "created out of the desire of a group of couples to get together socially and yet to contribute to a good cause." Consequently, the Hi-Hopes of Marin was established as a helpmate to the City of Hope.

Charter members of the group are Messrs. and Mesdames Bernie Bloch, Pete Bogla, Mervyn Cohn, Mort Colvin, Jack Friedman, Evan Goldenberg, Maury Koch, David Lapidus and Jerry Lerner. Other charter members are Messrs. and Mesdames Steve Liggett, Warren Logan, Stan Narin, Bob Neuhaus, Fred Pill, Kurt Rosenthal, Russell Shatz, Bud Simon, Bob Waxman and Fred White.

The City of Hope was started in 1913 as the dream of a small group of people who saw the need to care for and treat sufferers of tuberculosis. With scant funds these individuals purchased a small plot of land in the desert outside of Los Angeles, erected two tents and hired a doctor and several nurses. In the past 48 years the City of Hope has grown into a 90 acre complex of hospitals and laboratories noted for its role as a pilot medical center.

Volunteer Duties Continuing As Auxiliary Ends First Year

Nearing its first anniversary to be marked on Feb. 24 is the Lucas Valley Hospital Auxiliary which now numbers 40 members.

The Auxiliary, sponsored by the San Rafael Improvement Club, can look on its first year as one of accomplishment and progress.

Headed by Mrs. Ragnar Thaning of San Rafael, the volunteers in addition to their regular duties at the hospital, have made new cushions for the wheelchairs and donated five chairs at a cost of $300 and a mahogany television table.

Service given by these volunteers runs the gamut from providing transportation for outings such as to attend church services and shopping to entertainment on the third Thursday of each month, when the musical programs feature local talent.

Among the other volunteer efforts for the elderly patients are the beauty salon where shampoos, hairsets, permanents and manicures are given. Reading and writing letters, making bandages, arranging flowers, cards and games and just plain visiting round out the many Auxiliary activities.

Mrs. Wolfe, Dr. Robinson Are Married

At the San Rafael Methodist Church at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Dr. Louis L. Robinson, well known Marin physician, claimed Mrs. Chester Wolfe as his bride. The Rev. Donald H. Baldwin, pastor of the church officiated at the ceremony, which was witnessed by family members only.

Attendants of the couple were the bride's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harlan of San Anselmo. She has another daughter, Mrs. Carolyn Crechriou, who lives in San Rafael.

After a brief honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside in Doctor Robinson's home at 116 Locust Ave., San Rafael. He has two daughters by his previous marriage, Lustre Marie Robinson, a freshman at Dominican College, and Sherill Ann Robinson, a sophomore at San Rafael High School.

The new Mrs. Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas of Coronado, is remembered at the Independent-Journal, where she was in the display advertising department as the former Audrey Jones.

SEW SIMPLE

By EUNICE FARMER

"For keeping pins in a handy place, pin a strip of velvet or felt, about 4 inches wide, around the head of your sewing machine. You will never have to hunt for pins and it is also a convenient place to put your pins as you are sewing."

"I have saved every article you have written in the paper and my stack of papers is getting out of hand. Please consider writing a book, but in the meantime, can you give me some ideas for saving these valuable tips?" —Mrs. R. G.

Dear Mrs. R. G.:

I have had many suggestions from you readers about how you save the column for future reference. One of the best suggestions was to cut each question apart and paste it on a separate file card. These cards can be placed in a recipe file and the divider cards could be market "sleeves," "hems," "alterations," etc. In this way, they are always at your finger tips.

Another suggestion was to use a loose leaf notebook, filing the questions in much the same manner. However, with a note book, you have more space and can also save pictures of details you hope to use, swatches of fabric, etc.

This is the time of the year when most of us have to spend more time indoors, and can catch up on these jobs which we are always intending to get to, but somehow, never do.

"I have been making a coat with a very heavy fleecy look, and when I press the edges with my press cloth, even though I do this on the wrong side, the fleece looks flat and definitely spoils the look of the coat. If I don't press with the press cloth, the edges look thick and lumpy, Is there any way you can help me with any good suggestions?" Mrs. M. M.

Dear Mrs. M. M.:

If you will lay a large scrap of your heavy, fleecy fabric (right side up), on your pressing board, then place the right side of your garment down, so the two right sides will be together, you can proceed with the press cloth and you will find the fabric will not flatten out nearly as bad. Fabrics such as this should always be professionally pressed when completed.

To the many readers who ask about cutting instructions on the lengthwise or crosswise grain of the fabric:

Always cut your garments on the lengthwise grain of the fabric. They will hang so much better. This means that any point of the line printed on your pattern and marked "lengthwise grain," is to be the same distance from the selvage edge of your fabric.

The only exception to this rule would be where you are using a striped or a plaid fabric, and wish to cut part of your garment on the opposite grain for decorative purposes. Naturally with many of today's patterns that are cut on the bias grain, you would have to follow the specific cutting instructions given with the individual pattern.

"I always dreaded sewing, but with your help and inspiration, I just love it now. Some of the patterns I buy have large un-pressed pleats in the front of the skirt instead of darts. I don't look good with these pleats and want to know if I can make darts out of them?" Mrs. R.E.S.

Dear Mrs. R.E.S.:

As a general rule, you cannot make darts from unpressed pleats because the darts would be too wide, consequently, there would be a pucker of extra fullness at the pointed end of the dart.

The best way to change the darts is to lay a pattern which his two darts on either side of the skirt front, over your other skirt pattern, Mark the darts in the same position as the unpressed pleats were placed. You will also find that you will usually have to make the skirt a little more narrow at the side seams because you will not need the extra fabric needed for the unpressed pleats.

Please send all your questions and suggestions to Sew Simple in care of the Women's Dept., Independent-Journal.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bald spots in woman's hair probably are caused by brush rollers used in hair setting, Dr. Morris J. Lipnik, of Detroit, reported in the Archives of Dermatology, a medical journal. He described 13 patients complaining of hair loss. Some used brush rollers for several months. Others used them for as long as two years. When use of rollers was stopped, hair regrew in three to four months in 11 of the women. In two cases, scarring of the scalp prevented regrowth.

SEW SIMPLE

By EUNICE FARMER

"For keeping pins in a handy place, pin a strip of velvet or felt, about 4 inches wide, around the head of your sewing machine. You will never have to hunt for pins and it is also a convenient place to put your pins as you are sewing."

"I have saved every article you have written in the paper and my stack of papers is getting out of hand. Please consider writing a book, but in the meantime, can you give me some ideas for saving these valuable tips?" —Mrs. R. G.

Dear Mrs. R. G.:

I have had many suggestions from you readers about how you save the column for future reference. One of the best suggestions was to cut each question apart and paste it on a separate file card. These cards can be placed in a recipe file and the divider cards could be market "sleeves," "hems," "alterations," etc. In this way, they are always at your finger tips.

Another suggestion was to use a loose leaf notebook, filing the questions in much the same manner. However, with a note book, you have more space and can also save pictures of details you hope to use, swatches of fabric, etc.

This is the time of the year when most of us have to spend more time indoors, and can catch up on these jobs which we are always intending to get to, but somehow, never do.

"I have been making a coat with a very heavy fleecy look, and when I press the edges with my press cloth, even though I do this on the wrong side, the fleece looks flat and definitely spoils the look of the coat. If I don't press with the press cloth, the edges look thick and lumpy, Is there any way you can help me with any good suggestions?" Mrs. M. M.

Dear Mrs. M. M.:

If you will lay a large scrap of your heavy, fleecy fabric (right side up), on your pressing board, then place the right side of your garment down, so the two right sides will be together, you can proceed with the press cloth and you will find the fabric will not flatten out nearly as bad. Fabrics such as this should always be professionally pressed when completed.

To the many readers who ask about cutting instructions on the lengthwise or crosswise grain of the fabric:

Always cut your garments on the lengthwise grain of the fabric. They will hang so much better. This means that any point of the line printed on your pattern and marked "lengthwise grain," is to be the same distance from the selvage edge of your fabric.

The only exception to this rule would be where you are using a striped or a plaid fabric, and wish to cut part of your garment on the opposite grain for decorative purposes. Naturally with many of today's patterns that are cut on the bias grain, you would have to follow the specific cutting instructions given with the individual pattern.

"I always dreaded sewing, but with your help and inspiration, I just love it now. Some of the patterns I buy have large un-pressed pleats in the front of the skirt instead of darts. I don't look good with these pleats and want to know if I can make darts out of them?" Mrs. R.E.S.

Dear Mrs. R.E.S.:

As a general rule, you cannot make darts from unpressed pleats because the darts would be too wide, consequently, there would be a pucker of extra fullness at the pointed end of the dart.

The best way to change the darts is to lay a pattern which his two darts on either side of the skirt front, over your other skirt pattern, Mark the darts in the same position as the unpressed pleats were placed. You will also find that you will usually have to make the skirt a little more narrow at the side seams because you will not need the extra fabric needed for the unpressed pleats.

Please send all your questions and suggestions to Sew Simple in care of the Women's Dept., Independent-Journal.

IN HAMILTON HOUSEHOLD

Books, Furniture, Records Reflect Magees' Interests

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Any woman's home reflects her personality. This was never more true than when one visits the home of Mrs. Mervyn M. Magee and sees the excellent taste in mixing contemporary and antique furniture, with selections from abroad; hears the collection of fine records, or sees the rows of books which grace the home of the general's wife.

Mrs. Magee is the wife of Maj. Gen. Mervyn M. Magee, commander of the 28th North American Air Defense Region, U.S. Army. At present they are making their home at 293 Casa Grande Real at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Magees have moved three times during the 18 months they have been on the West Coast, coming here from Washington D.C., where Mrs. Magee made her home while the general was in Korea. During this time they first lived in the state of Washington, at McChord Field, the Presidio in San Francisco and finally in August moving to Hamilton.

WELL TRAVELED

Two members of the household who welcome visitors to the Magee home are Winkie and Dennis. Winkie is a nine-year-old Sheltie dog and Dennis, a one-year-old poodle. Both dogs have traveled extensively with the Magees.

In the Spanish-style home, the outstanding piece of furniture in the living room is a mahogany coffee table inlaid with tiles depicting the various places that the Magees visited and lived during a three-year tour of duty in Germany. The white tiles with the painted scenes include a picture of Stuttgart and Goer-pingen where the Magees lived and also a tile with the castle at Grafenwoehr which Napoleon visited while in Germany.

They also brought back two sofas and two occasional chairs from Germany.

More than 500 books make up the library of Mrs. Magee. Her favorite author is Jane Austen and she was particularly pleased recently to find a 1922 publication of "Love and Friendship" written by Miss Austen when she was 17 years old.

Mrs. Magee said she had to give up about 1000 of her books when traveling so much, as her husband said it cost too much to pay the freight on them. However, Mrs. Magee said with a smile, that she informed her husband that her books were no more of an expense than all of his various golf memberships.

A native of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Magee attended Mary Baldwin School in Staunton, Va. and received her bachelor of arts degree at Oberlin College in Ohio, where she majored in sociology. Her mother who is 85 years of age, still resides in Washington.

BRIEF VISIT

When Mrs. Magee was 16 years old she made a brief visit to California and since that time she has wanted to return. In her words "I love California."

The army life keeps her very busy with entertaining which Mrs. Magee said she likes to do. But she has quite a time trying to make dates ahead for plays and operas, which both she and the general like to attend. They are looking forward to going to the Sheraton Palace in San Francisco soon to see "Guys and Dolls."

General and Mrs. Magee have two children. Julie who is 23, is living in New York where she has been for 2½ years. Julie and a former schoolmate at Stephens College in Missouri are both trying to get into the theater, which Mrs. Magee said "Is a hard nut to crack." Julie has been a photographer's model and at present is doing television commercials while waiting and hoping for her "big chance" on the stage.

Their son, Edward, is married and a junior at George Washington University, where he is majoring in electrical engineering.

IN A DIMESTORE

Mrs. Magee's pet project is the Thrift Shop at Hamilton. She said, "I must have been born and bred in a 10 cents store, I like working in the Thrift Shop so much." She works at the Thrift Shop every Tuesday marking items and helping people with selections. Personnel at Hamilton consign articles that they no longer need and the Thrift Shop in turn takes 10 per cent of the proceeds which it in turn donates to welfare in the area. Among the articles are an organ, bicycles, refrigerators and clothing, which is sold only to base personnel. The only problem according to Mrs. Magee is the fact that there is not enough space.

The Magees have a special feeling for General Magee's aide, Capt. William Owel, his wife and their newly adopted six months old son, Kevin. As Mrs. Magee said, they practically have made themselves foster grandparents of the new baby. Proof of that is a crib in one of the bedrooms in the Magee home that they bought so the baby would have a place to sleep when the Captain and his wife come to visit.

A vacation in Hawaii is being planned by the Magee's next month. According to Mrs. Magee she will "lay on the beach, soak up the sun, and indulge in her favorite hobby, reading." They also have several friends in Hawaii that they will visit. Also accompanying them on their vacation will be the Owel's and Kevin.

Mrs. Magee, who celebrated her birthday Saturday said she likes to be with people, particularly young people and that is the reason she likes Army life.

New Findings On Credentials AAUW Program

New findings on teachers' credentials, results of a statewide committee, will be the subject for discussion when the Higher Education section, American Assn. of University Women, Marin branch, meets at 10 o'clock Jan. 29.

The meeting will be held at the Fairhills home of the section chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan.

Members who will summarize and analyze the credential program include the Mesdames Lyle Storey, R. J. Houston, Hugh G. Marchant and H. F. Harnsberger.

Anyone interested in attending the meeting is asked to contact Mrs. Moynihan.

Bethel 246 Has Initiation Rite

Bethel 246 of Larkspur, International Order of Job's Daughters, initiated two members Tuesday with honored queen Lotus Schaffer presiding. New members are Kathleen Gray and Leanne Bertram.

Entertainment which followed the meeting and inspection had a South Pacific theme. Chairman of the evening was Penny Worth, assisted by Lenore Pellaton.

Delanys Are Well-Received

Enthusiastically received Thursday afternoon in the first and only music program of the year for the Sausalito Woman's Club were bass-baritone Robert Delany and his wife, pianist Catherine Delany. They were presented by music co-chairmen Mesdames Matthew J. Dooley and Glenn T. Hall.

Delany sang widely varied selections from Mozart, Lully, Handel, Brahms, Schumann, Faure, Rachmaninoff, Grieg, Britten, Copland and Thomson, and Mrs. Delany's selections were compositions by Brahms, Debussy and Villa Lobos.

Unusual decor, including trees of dried hydrangeas, was done by Mrs. William U. Remensperger. Tea chairmen were Mesdames George Eickmeyer and Ernest Morck.

Pouring were Mesdames Frank E. Rossman and Stanley Cowen, assisted by Mesdames W. L. C. Brown, Gilbert W. Gerten, Glenn Hall, Frank Kelly and Jack Woods.

MRS. GUPTA TO ADDRESS BPW CLUB

Ruth Church Gupta of San Francisco, second vice president and legislative advocate of California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, will be the featured speaker at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County tomorrow night at Deer Park Villa, Fairfax.

The program is Career Advancement and Women in Public Office. Leonore Melton is chairman and May Ahern, co-chairman. Elsie Mazzini, president, will conduct the meeting.

Mrs. Gupta, who is engaged in practice of law with her husband, Kamini K. Gupta, is a graduate of Mills College and Hastings College of Law. She has taken an active part in obtaining state legislation to benefit women such as equal pay for equal work. In the 1961 state legislature she obtained passage of the inheritance tax law giving women the same tax exemptions men have. She is charter president of Marina Club, BPWC, San Francisco and member of the Pacifica Club.

Good Student Clubs Should Be Available In High School

Are good student clubs available at your high school? Can pupils join them, and have fun? I hope so. School clubs are being dropped in some places. There's a theory that our youngsters shouldn't have any social life. It could be disastrous.

Back in World War II, high schools abandoned student activities. Folks thought they interfered with the war effort. Transportation was difficult. Teachers were too busy to sponsor clubs. The result was bad. Teen-agers formed secret groups, all over the country. Uncontrolled clubs did many bad things. Wild parties became common. Sex delinquency increased. So did drunkenness. Some went in for shop-lifting. Others got money by holding up elderly people, or stealing from drunken servicemen. Some nice youngsters went to pot in a hurry.

The point is, teen-agers need good, well-sponsored clubs. They find their fun in group activities. If the right kind of clubs are not available they may form bad ones. Many young people are easily misled. It took years to overcome the effects of bad wartime youth activities. Let's not repeat the mistake.

What clubs are needed? Many types, in the larger schools. French clubs, Latin clubs, math clubs. Clubs centering on radio, electronics, science, English, instrumental music, swimming, drama, vocal music, athletics, and so on. Such clubs need to be led by interested faculty members. Without good leadership they don't survive.

Other good clubs have sponsorship from outside school. The YWCA's Y-Teens, for example. Or the YMCA's HI-Y service clubs. And the Newman Clubs, Westminister Clubs, and Wesley Clubs from the churches.

Weight Reduction Series Set

The eighth series of weight reduction classes sponsored by the Marin County Heart Assn. will get underway Feb. 5 and Feb. 7, and will continue each Monday and Wednesday for 16 weeks.

Sessions will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the offices of the Marin County Heart Assn. in San Rafael.

Class groups will be approximately 15 to 20 in size, depending upon number of registrants. Classes are open to both men and women.

An average weight loss of 1 to 1½ pounds per week is anticipated, based on results of previous classes. Overweight persons will be accepted only on referral from physicians and will be using a 1200 calorie plan.

Class members will weigh in weekly and chart progress, view movies and hear guest speakers, including physical therapists, psychiatrists, nutritionists and other representatives.

Instructing will be Mrs. Frances Dahl and Mrs. Barbara Peters. Both are registered dietitians and have worked with weight control classes sponsored by the Heart Assn. for the past several years.

IN HAMILTON HOUSEHOLD

Books, Furniture, Records Reflect Magees' Interests

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Any woman's home reflects her personality. This was never more true than when one visits the home of Mrs. Mervyn M. Magee and sees the excellent taste in mixing contemporary and antique furniture, with selections from abroad; hears the collection of fine records, or sees the rows of books which grace the home of the general's wife.

Mrs. Magee is the wife of Maj. Gen. Mervyn M. Magee, commander of the 28th North American Air Defense Region, U.S. Army. At present they are making their home at 293 Casa Grande Real at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Magees have moved three times during the 18 months they have been on the West Coast, coming here from Washington D.C., where Mrs. Magee made her home while the general was in Korea. During this time they first lived in the state of Washington, at McChord Field, the Presidio in San Francisco and finally in August moving to Hamilton.

WELL TRAVELED

Two members of the household who welcome visitors to the Magee home are Winkie and Dennis. Winkie is a nine-year-old Sheltie dog and Dennis, a one-year-old poodle. Both dogs have traveled extensively with the Magees.

In the Spanish-style home, the outstanding piece of furniture in the living room is a mahogany coffee table inlaid with tiles depicting the various places that the Magees visited and lived during a three-year tour of duty in Germany. The white tiles with the painted scenes include a picture of Stuttgart and Goer-pingen where the Magees lived and also a tile with the castle at Grafenwoehr which Napoleon visited while in Germany.

They also brought back two sofas and two occasional chairs from Germany.

More than 500 books make up the library of Mrs. Magee. Her favorite author is Jane Austen and she was particularly pleased recently to find a 1922 publication of "Love and Friendship" written by Miss Austen when she was 17 years old.

Mrs. Magee said she had to give up about 1000 of her books when traveling so much, as her husband said it cost too much to pay the freight on them. However, Mrs. Magee said with a smile, that she informed her husband that her books were no more of an expense than all of his various golf memberships.

A native of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Magee attended Mary Baldwin School in Staunton, Va. and received her bachelor of arts degree at Oberlin College in Ohio, where she majored in sociology. Her mother who is 85 years of age, still resides in Washington.

BRIEF VISIT

When Mrs. Magee was 16 years old she made a brief visit to California and since that time she has wanted to return. In her words "I love California."

The army life keeps her very busy with entertaining which Mrs. Magee said she likes to do. But she has quite a time trying to make dates ahead for plays and operas, which both she and the general like to attend. They are looking forward to going to the Sheraton Palace in San Francisco soon to see "Guys and Dolls."

General and Mrs. Magee have two children. Julie who is 23, is living in New York where she has been for 2½ years. Julie and a former schoolmate at Stephens College in Missouri are both trying to get into the theater, which Mrs. Magee said "Is a hard nut to crack." Julie has been a photographer's model and at present is doing television commercials while waiting and hoping for her "big chance" on the stage.

Their son, Edward, is married and a junior at George Washington University, where he is majoring in electrical engineering.

IN A DIMESTORE

Mrs. Magee's pet project is the Thrift Shop at Hamilton. She said, "I must have been born and bred in a 10 cents store, I like working in the Thrift Shop so much." She works at the Thrift Shop every Tuesday marking items and helping people with selections. Personnel at Hamilton consign articles that they no longer need and the Thrift Shop in turn takes 10 per cent of the proceeds which it in turn donates to welfare in the area. Among the articles are an organ, bicycles, refrigerators and clothing, which is sold only to base personnel. The only problem according to Mrs. Magee is the fact that there is not enough space.

The Magees have a special feeling for General Magee's aide, Capt. William Owel, his wife and their newly adopted six months old son, Kevin. As Mrs. Magee said, they practically have made themselves foster grandparents of the new baby. Proof of that is a crib in one of the bedrooms in the Magee home that they bought so the baby would have a place to sleep when the Captain and his wife come to visit.

A vacation in Hawaii is being planned by the Magee's next month. According to Mrs. Magee she will "lay on the beach, soak up the sun, and indulge in her favorite hobby, reading." They also have several friends in Hawaii that they will visit. Also accompanying them on their vacation will be the Owel's and Kevin.

Mrs. Magee, who celebrated her birthday Saturday said she likes to be with people, particularly young people and that is the reason she likes Army life.

New Findings On Credentials AAUW Program

New findings on teachers' credentials, results of a statewide committee, will be the subject for discussion when the Higher Education section, American Assn. of University Women, Marin branch, meets at 10 o'clock Jan. 29.

The meeting will be held at the Fairhills home of the section chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan.

Members who will summarize and analyze the credential program include the Mesdames Lyle Storey, R. J. Houston, Hugh G. Marchant and H. F. Harnsberger.

Anyone interested in attending the meeting is asked to contact Mrs. Moynihan.

Bethel 246 Has Initiation Rite

Bethel 246 of Larkspur, International Order of Job's Daughters, initiated two members Tuesday with honored queen Lotus Schaffer presiding. New members are Kathleen Gray and Leanne Bertram.

Entertainment which followed the meeting and inspection had a South Pacific theme. Chairman of the evening was Penny Worth, assisted by Lenore Pellaton.

Delanys Are Well-Received

Enthusiastically received Thursday afternoon in the first and only music program of the year for the Sausalito Woman's Club were bass-baritone Robert Delany and his wife, pianist Catherine Delany. They were presented by music co-chairmen Mesdames Matthew J. Dooley and Glenn T. Hall.

Delany sang widely varied selections from Mozart, Lully, Handel, Brahms, Schumann, Faure, Rachmaninoff, Grieg, Britten, Copland and Thomson, and Mrs. Delany's selections were compositions by Brahms, Debussy and Villa Lobos.

Unusual decor, including trees of dried hydrangeas, was done by Mrs. William U. Remensperger. Tea chairmen were Mesdames George Eickmeyer and Ernest Morck.

Pouring were Mesdames Frank E. Rossman and Stanley Cowen, assisted by Mesdames W. L. C. Brown, Gilbert W. Gerten, Glenn Hall, Frank Kelly and Jack Woods.

MRS. GUPTA TO ADDRESS BPW CLUB

Ruth Church Gupta of San Francisco, second vice president and legislative advocate of California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, will be the featured speaker at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County tomorrow night at Deer Park Villa, Fairfax.

The program is Career Advancement and Women in Public Office. Leonore Melton is chairman and May Ahern, co-chairman. Elsie Mazzini, president, will conduct the meeting.

Mrs. Gupta, who is engaged in practice of law with her husband, Kamini K. Gupta, is a graduate of Mills College and Hastings College of Law. She has taken an active part in obtaining state legislation to benefit women such as equal pay for equal work. In the 1961 state legislature she obtained passage of the inheritance tax law giving women the same tax exemptions men have. She is charter president of Marina Club, BPWC, San Francisco and member of the Pacifica Club.

Good Student Clubs Should Be Available In High School

Are good student clubs available at your high school? Can pupils join them, and have fun? I hope so. School clubs are being dropped in some places. There's a theory that our youngsters shouldn't have any social life. It could be disastrous.

Back in World War II, high schools abandoned student activities. Folks thought they interfered with the war effort. Transportation was difficult. Teachers were too busy to sponsor clubs. The result was bad. Teen-agers formed secret groups, all over the country. Uncontrolled clubs did many bad things. Wild parties became common. Sex delinquency increased. So did drunkenness. Some went in for shop-lifting. Others got money by holding up elderly people, or stealing from drunken servicemen. Some nice youngsters went to pot in a hurry.

The point is, teen-agers need good, well-sponsored clubs. They find their fun in group activities. If the right kind of clubs are not available they may form bad ones. Many young people are easily misled. It took years to overcome the effects of bad wartime youth activities. Let's not repeat the mistake.

What clubs are needed? Many types, in the larger schools. French clubs, Latin clubs, math clubs. Clubs centering on radio, electronics, science, English, instrumental music, swimming, drama, vocal music, athletics, and so on. Such clubs need to be led by interested faculty members. Without good leadership they don't survive.

Other good clubs have sponsorship from outside school. The YWCA's Y-Teens, for example. Or the YMCA's HI-Y service clubs. And the Newman Clubs, Westminister Clubs, and Wesley Clubs from the churches.

Weight Reduction Series Set

The eighth series of weight reduction classes sponsored by the Marin County Heart Assn. will get underway Feb. 5 and Feb. 7, and will continue each Monday and Wednesday for 16 weeks.

Sessions will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the offices of the Marin County Heart Assn. in San Rafael.

Class groups will be approximately 15 to 20 in size, depending upon number of registrants. Classes are open to both men and women.

An average weight loss of 1 to 1½ pounds per week is anticipated, based on results of previous classes. Overweight persons will be accepted only on referral from physicians and will be using a 1200 calorie plan.

Class members will weigh in weekly and chart progress, view movies and hear guest speakers, including physical therapists, psychiatrists, nutritionists and other representatives.

Instructing will be Mrs. Frances Dahl and Mrs. Barbara Peters. Both are registered dietitians and have worked with weight control classes sponsored by the Heart Assn. for the past several years.

WINNING BRIDGE

Bidding Calls For Trump Opener To Reduce Dummy Ruffing Power

Consider a trump opening lead when declarer bids two suits and gets a marked preference for one of those suits from his partner. That kind of auction indicates a dummy with ruffing power, and you have to lead trumps early and often to reduce dummy's ruffing power.

Opening lead — ♠ A

West read the signs correctly and opened the ace of spades. He continued with a low spade to dummy's queen.

Declarer led the singleton heart from the dummy, and it was up to East to continue his partner's fine defense. The old rule says, "Second hand low," but East shrewdly put up the king of hearts to win the trick.

East naturally returned his last trump, since it was for this purpose that he had stepped up with the king of hearts. This took the last trump out of dummy.

GOES DOWN TWO: South saw that he could make only four trumps, four clubs and the ace of diamonds, for a total of nine tricks. His best chance was to try the diamond finesse in the hope of getting a tenth trick that way.

When the diamond finesse lost, East returned a heart and West got two more heart tricks. Down two.

South would have made his contract against any other defense. The opponents had to remove all three trumps from dummy before South could ruff a heart. Even a single ruff would have given South his tenth trick.

Answer: Pass. Beware of opening the bidding when you have only 1½ Quick Tricks. To put it another way, avoid counting a queen at its full point value unless it is accompanied by the king or ace of the same suit.

School Merging Unit Will Meet

The augmented county committee on school district organization will meet at 8 p.m. Jan. 27 in West Marin Union School, County. Supt. Virgil S. Hollis announced today.

The committee has held a number of meetings on proposals to merge numerous school districts in Marin and Sonoma Counties. Hollis said the purpose of the Jan. 29 meeting is to give further consideration to possible reorganization of the study area.

Former Sausalitan Given Historical Society Award

Architect John Garden Campbell, former resident of Sausalito, has received an award of merit for outstanding contributions to California history, the California Historical Society announced in San Francisco.

Campbell, now a San Franciscan, won several wards for construction in Marin. The historical society honored him not only for contributions to contemporary California architecture but for helping found the California Heritage Counsel and helping create Leger Ltd. of Mokelumne Hill in Calaveras County.

This was termed "an outstanding example of a private corporation's successful effort in preserving and revitalizing a community."

Bidding Calls For Trump Opener To Reduce Dummy Ruffing Power

Consider a trump opening lead when declarer bids two suits and gets a marked preference for one of those suits from his partner. That kind of auction indicates a dummy with ruffing power, and you have to lead trumps early and often to reduce dummy's ruffing power.

Opening lead — ♠ A

West read the signs correctly and opened the ace of spades. He continued with a low spade to dummy's queen.

Declarer led the singleton heart from the dummy, and it was up to East to continue his partner's fine defense. The old rule says, "Second hand low," but East shrewdly put up the king of hearts to win the trick.

East naturally returned his last trump, since it was for this purpose that he had stepped up with the king of hearts. This took the last trump out of dummy.

GOES DOWN TWO: South saw that he could make only four trumps, four clubs and the ace of diamonds, for a total of nine tricks. His best chance was to try the diamond finesse in the hope of getting a tenth trick that way.

When the diamond finesse lost, East returned a heart and West got two more heart tricks. Down two.

South would have made his contract against any other defense. The opponents had to remove all three trumps from dummy before South could ruff a heart. Even a single ruff would have given South his tenth trick.

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. Beware of opening the bidding when you have only 1½ Quick Tricks. To put it another way, avoid counting a queen as its full point value unless it is accompanied by the king or ace of the same suit.

School Merging Unit Will Meet

The augmented county committee on school district organization will meet at 8 p.m. Jan. 27 in West Marin Union School, County. Supt. Virgil S. Hollis announced today.

The committee has held a number of meetings on proposals to merge numerous school districts in Marin and Sonoma Counties. Hollis said the purpose of the Jan. 29 meeting is to give further consideration to possible reorganization of the study area.

Former Sausalitan Given Historical Society Award

Architect John Garden Campbell, former resident of Sausalito, has received an award of merit for outstanding contributions to California history, the California Historical Society announced in San Francisco.

Campbell, now a San Franciscan, won several wards for construction in Marin. The historical society honored him not only for contributions to contemporary California architecture but for helping found the California Heritage Counsel and helping create Leger Ltd. of Mokelumne Hill in Calaveras County.

This was termed "an outstanding example of a private corporation's successful effort in preserving and revitalizing a community."

Harold's Club Founder Is Sued For Divorce

RENO (AP)—Harold S. Smith Sr., founder of Harolds Club casino, has been sued of divorce by his wife of 14 years, Lois.

Smith asked district court to settle child custody in the best interests of the couple's three children and sought an equitable division of community property.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE

PROBATE NO. 14009

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Marin.

In the Matter of the Estate of N. P. REGALIA, also known as NATALE P. REGALIA, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on or after the 22nd day of January, 1962, the undersigned, VIRGINIO REGALIA, as Administrator of the Estate of N. P. REGALIA, Deceased, will sell at private sale, to the highest bidder, subject to confirmation by the above entitled Superior Court, all of the right, title and interest and estate of the said deceased in and to that certain real property located in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, and described as follows:

LOTS 13 and 15 in Block E as said Lots and Block are laid down, designated and delineated on that certain map entitled, "Map No. 1 San Rafael Development Company", filed and recorded in the office of the County of Marin, State of California, on the 25th day of April, 1908, in Book No. 2 of Maps at page 116.

subject to current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, rights of way and easements of record or otherwise.

Bids or offers are invited for the property and must be in writing and may be delivered to the said Administrator, or to the offices of his attorneys, FREITAS, ALLEN, McCARTHY & BETTINI, 960 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, California, at any time after the first publication of this Notice and before the making of the sale.

The terms and conditions of sale, to wit, are cash: ten (10%) per cent of the amount bid to accompany the offer and the balance to be paid upon confirmation of sale by the Superior Court and concurrent with the delivery of title. Taxes, rents, operating and maintenance expenses, and premiums on insurance acceptable to purchaser shall be prorated as of the date of the transfer of title. The examination of title, recording of conveyance and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the purchaser or purchasers.

The property herein described and offered for sale is commonly referred to as No. 31 Valencia Street, San Rafael, California.

Low Mileage CREAMPUFFS
Here are three really premium older cars that we've taken in this week on new 1962 Buicks. They are all one - owner that were purchased new by local owners. We rarely get as many outstanding older cars as we're offering here. We'll be glad to tell the original owner's name so you can verify the unusually low mileage of these cars.

'55 Cadillac Coupe $1045
Model 62 hardtop coupe with everything in the way of power equipment including steering, brakes, seat and windows. Locally owned by retired merchant. This car has only 32,000 miles. What a great buy for someone who wants an older Cadillac that they can drive trouble-free for quite a few years.

'55 Merc. Coupe $695
Monterey hardtop couple that we took in from retired couple. White with green top and full leather interior that looks like new. Mercomatic, radio, heater and white wall tires. Cleanest Mercury hardtop we've had in years. 35,000 miles on this car.

'53 Buick Sedan $395
You won't believe it but here's a car that's 9 years old with only 37,000 actual miles. Traded by local lady on new Buick. This 4-Dr. sedan has Dynaflow, radio, heater, power steering and all the Buick luxury items.

Low Mileage CREAMPUFFS
Here are three really premium older cars that we've taken in this week on new 1962 Buicks. They are all one - owner that were purchased new by local owners. We rarely get as many outstanding older cars as we're offering here. We'll be glad to tell the original owner's name so you can verify the unusually low mileage of these cars.

'55 Cadillac Coupe $1045
Model 62 hardtop coupe with everything in the way of power equipment including steering, brakes, seat and windows. Locally owned by retired merchant. This car has only 32,000 miles. What a great buy for someone who wants an older Cadillac that they can drive trouble-free for quite a few years.

'55 Merc. Coupe $695
Monterey hardtop couple that we took in from retired couple. White with green top and full leather interior that looks like new. Mercomatic, radio, heater and white wall tires. Cleanest Mercury hardtop we've had in years. 35,000 miles on this car.

'53 Buick Sedan $395
You won't believe it but here's a car that's 9 years old with only 37,000 actual miles. Traded by local lady on new Buick. This 4-Dr. sedan has Dynaflow, radio, heater, power steering and all the Buick luxury items.

'Chalk Garden' To Be Presented By Drama Group

"The Chalk Garden," Enid Bagnold's suspenseful comedy drama, will be presented by the Festival Theater in San Anselmo, beginning Feb. 24, director Robert Cowell announced today.

Carol Brumm will appear as Miss Madrigal, the role created in New York by Siobhan McKenna. Louis Bennett, also of the Festival Theater staff, will play the role of a neurotic exprisoner. The theater is on Bolinas Road at Kensington Road.

Several members of the former Company of the Golden Hind also will be in the cast. They include Eileen Earle and Beryl Grafton.

Several clubs have requested theater parties and benefit performances of the drama, to be produced Friday and Saturday evenings. The box office will open in February for public sale of general admissions.

Larkspur Chamber Installs Officers

Chris Schlag of 20 El Cerito Avenue, San Anselmo, owner of the Larkspur Barber Shop, was installed as president of the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce at an installation dinner last week.

Installing the new officers was Mayor Arthur E. Storhaug, who gave a brief talk on current activities in which the Larkspur City Council is engaged. The dinner was held at the Blue Rock Hotel.

Other officers installed were Kenneth Anderson of Larkspur Pharmacy, vice president; Charles Hunter, manager of Larkspur branch of the Bank of America, treasurer; and Mrs. Mabelle Culpepper, real estate broker, secretary.

Democrat Is Named To State Council

Robert L. Harmon, president of the Marin Council of Democratic Clubs, has been named to represent the council at the California Democratic Council endorsing convention in Fresno, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Approximately 50 Marinites will attend the Fresno convention.

COURSE OF DEATH-DEALING AVALANCHE

This Peruvian Air Force photo shows the path taken by the avalanche that took nearly 4,000 lives Jan. 10 as it poured down from towering Mount Huascaran. It began near the upper left corner, geographically on the east, moved along in an ever-widening band and headed down from the top center to reach its full force in the mountain gorge, wiping out villages along the way. At left are homes which escaped. (AP Wirephoto)

County Clothes In Kentfield Closing So Owner Can Vacation

Grace Graham County Clothes, 753 College Avenue, Kentfield, will close its doors at the end of January. A much needed rest and extended vacation in Hawaii is planned by its owner—possibly a year or longed No plans have been made for reopening in the county.

Word is that the shop may be used for expanding the adjoining Crocker-Anglo Bank offices.

MRS SHEILA NUTTO of San Anselmo has been appointed assistant secretary of the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. She has been with the firm three years, is almost a native of the county (missed it by six months—born in San Francisco).

MARINDIVIDUALS. Paul Ciampi, owner of Paul Ciampi Distributing Co., San Rafael, will be a delegate to the annual convention of the California Beer Wholesales in Palm Springs at the end of this week, representing Marin and Sonoma counties . . . James McNeil of the Secrist general agency for John Hancock Mutual Life was a third-prize winner in an essay contest among Hancock employees across the nation . . . David A. Kamp of Tiburon and member of the San Francisco agency of New England Life has been attending a seminar for advanced underwriters at Santa Barbara . . . Fred Cherry of San Anselmo has split his San Francisco advertising business to form a separate division for the publication of newsletters, house organs and annual reports.

INSTRUCTION in outboard motors is being given by the Western Boat Shop in San Rafael. Features covered are electrical systems, fuel systems, propellers, cooling and emergency trouble shooting — also how to run one. William Haskell Johnson outboard specialist, is the instructor.

STOCKS. One out of every six adults in the country is now a shareholder in U.S. public corporations, according to York and Co., San Rafael investment brokers. This is two and one-half times the number 10 years ago when the ratio was one out of 16 . . . E. F. Hutton Co., San Francisco stockbroker firm, will put on four classes of two-hour duration on commodity futures—beginning tonight 5 to 7 o'clock . . . More than 80 per cent of Bank of America's shaerholders were represented in person or by proxy at last week's annual meeting in San Francisco. President S. Clark Beise told them not to worry about paying higher interest rates on savings accounts. Company's earning assets by the end of the year will offset them.

MOTORCRAFT. We hear talk of another Dodge agency in the county—possibly in Mill Valley. The new Dodge Custom 880 is scheduled to be put into production any day . . . Each year the two-or-more-cars families increase. Now they number about one in six . . . Allstate Motor Club reports only a small percentage of car owners have seat belts—and too few who have actually use them. Complaints and excuses: Too much trouble, being trapped in an accident, abdominal injuries caused. There's a logical answer to each, but it may take a generation before they sink in . . . Oldsmobile, the first mass-production car, recently saw its seven and one-half millionth vehicle rolled off the line.

'Chalk Garden' To Be Presented By Drama Group

"The Chalk Garden," Enid Bagnold's suspenseful comedy drama, will be presented by the Festival Theater in San Anselmo, beginning Feb. 24, director Robert Cowell announced today.

Carol Brumm will appear as Miss Madrigal, the role created in New York by Siobhan McKenna. Louis Bennett, also of the Festival Theater staff, will play the role of a neurotic exprisoner. The theater is on Bolinas Road at Kensington Road.

Several members of the former Company of the Golden Hind also will be in the cast. They include Eileen Earle and Beryl Grafton.

Several clubs have requested theater parties and benefit performances of the drama, to be produced Friday and Saturday evenings. The box office will open in February for public sale of general admissions.

Larkspur Chamber Installs Officers

Chris Schlag of 20 El Cerito Avenue, San Anselmo, owner of the Larkspur Barber Shop, was installed as president of the Larkspur Chamber of Commerce at an installation dinner last week.

Installing the new officers was Mayor Arthur E. Storhaug, who gave a brief talk on current activities in which the Larkspur City Council is engaged. The dinner was held at the Blue Rock Hotel.

Other officers installed were Kenneth Anderson of Larkspur Pharmacy, vice president; Charles Hunter, manager of Larkspur branch of the Bank of America, treasurer; and Mrs. Mabelle Culpepper, real estate broker, secretary.

County Clothes In Kentfield Closing So Owner Can Vacation

Grace Graham County Clothes, 753 College Avenue, Kentfield, will close its doors at the end of January. A much needed rest and extended vacation in Hawaii is planned by its owner—possibly a year or longed No plans have been made for reopening in the county.

Word is that the shop may be used for expanding the adjoining Crocker-Anglo Bank offices.

MRS SHEILA NUTTO of San Anselmo has been appointed assistant secretary of the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. She has been with the firm three years, is almost a native of the county (missed it by six months—born in San Francisco).

MARINDIVIDUALS. Paul Ciampi, owner of Paul Ciampi Distributing Co., San Rafael, will be a delegate to the annual convention of the California Beer Wholesales in Palm Springs at the end of this week, representing Marin and Sonoma counties . . . James McNeil of the Secrist general agency for John Hancock Mutual Life was a third-prize winner in an essay contest among Hancock employees across the nation . . . David A. Kamp of Tiburon and member of the San Francisco agency of New England Life has been attending a seminar for advanced underwriters at Santa Barbara . . . Fred Cherry of San Anselmo has split his San Francisco advertising business to form a separate division for the publication of newsletters, house organs and annual reports.

INSTRUCTION in outboard motors is being given by the Western Boat Shop in San Rafael. Features covered are electrical systems, fuel systems, propellers, cooling and emergency trouble shooting — also how to run one. William Haskell ,Johnson outboard specialist, is the instructor.

STOCKS. One out of every six adults in the country is now a shareholder in U.S. public corporations, according to York and Co., San Rafael investment brokers. This is two and one-half times the number 10 years ago when the ratio was one out of 16 . . . E. F. Hutton Co., San Francisco stockbroker firm, will put on four classes of two-hour duration on commodity futures—beginning tonight 5 to 7 o'clock . . . More than 80 per cent of Bank of America's shaerholders were represented in person or by proxy at last week's annual meeting in San Francisco. President S. Clark Beise told them not to worry about paying higher interest rates on savings accounts. Company's earning assets by the end of the year will offset them.

MOTORCRAFT. We hear talk of another Dodge agency in the county—possibly in Mill Valley. The new Dodge Custom 880 is scheduled to be put into production any day . . . Each year the two-or-more-cars families increase. Now they number about one in six . . . Allstate Motor Club reports only a small percentage of car owners have seat belts—and too few who have actually use them. Complaints and excuses: Too much trouble, being trapped in an accident, abdominal injuries caused. There's a logical answer to each, but it may take a generation before they sink in . . . Oldsmobile, the first mass-production car, recently saw its seven and one-half millionth vehicle rolled off the line.

Mental Health Of Men Tested

NEW YORK (UPI)—In probing 83 men for "self-acceptance" and "self-rejection," a psychological scientist came up with the answer that aging does not necessarily produce a decline in the former and an increase in the latter.

This contradicts a widely accepted psychological theory that as human beings age they view themselves with much less satisfaction while finding more and more faults in themselves. "Self-acceptance" and "self-rejection" are considered to be one indicator of mental health.

Having turned up his contradiction of the theory, Dr. Kenneth L. Bloom thought that perhaps such a way of probing people was too simple. He suggested science should look into the matter more deeply.

His 83 men ranged in age from 20 years to 69. They were not a "marginal" nor abnormal group but what you might expect to draw at random from the general population. However, their number was too small to be statistically representative, as Bloom pointed out.

He found there was self-rejecters among the young ones and self-acceptance among the old ones. When he compared mathematically the degrees of self-acceptance or of self-rejection over the wide range of ages, he found no relationships.

But when he broke up the age range into narrow bands, there were mathematical relationships. Between 20 and 29 men have problems they are trying to solve. These cover the fields of jobs, of sex, of getting along with other people, of dealing with their own inner drives.

"These adjustment problems lead to doubts concerning the individual's self worth or self esteem, hence self acceptance is at a low ebb," Bloom reported to the American Psychiatric Association.

"As the individual finds solutions for these problems, self acceptance increases until in the Forties, most individuals have achieved some measure of stability."

Then between 50 and 59 "comes the realization of getting old. The individual is again confronted by doubts and anxieties and thus self acceptance declines."

However, "stereotypes" enter into this process, he continued. Men are supposed to slow down with the years, according to popular but scientifically unsupported rumor and it could be that's why many of them do.

On the other hand, not all "stereotypes" egg aging people into rejecting themselves. There is the "stereotype" that older people are mature and wise. It helps self-acceptance.

Of course, believing that could be a sign of defensiveness rather than of good adjustment to life's realities, he said, but "it should not be looked upon as a negative phenomenon. It may be viewed as an attempt by older persons to defend the self against 'the external threat of aging' and therefore serves an adjustive function."

Bloom works at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Brooklyn.

4 A.F. Reservists Get Academy Laison Posts

Four Marin County Air Force reservists have been appointed as liaison officers for the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, it was announced today.

Their duties are to act as counsellors to Marin students who are interested in entering the Academy toward Air Force careers.

The officers, and the schools under their jurisdiction, are.

Col. Oscar R. Street of 15 Hillcrest Court, San Anselmo, will advise students at College of Marin and Tomales Joint Union High School.

Lt. Col. Paul J. Wata of 805 Estancia Way, Santa Venetia, a teacher at Tamalpais High School, will serve as liaison officer for his own school as well as Redwood and Marin Catholic High Schools, Tamalpais evening adult school and St. Vincent's School For Boys.

Maj. Philip Hiaring of 95 Suffield Avenue, San Anselmo, will work with students at Sir Francis Drake High School and San Rafael Military Academy.

Maj. Frank A. Saunders of 71 Elena Circle, Terra Linda, has been assigned to students at Terra Linda and Novato High Schools.

Assistant Demo Whip Californian

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Democratic leadership has named Rep. John E. Moss of California to the post of assistant party whip.

The appointment of Moss filled the formal roster of Democratic leaders in the House following the death of Speaker Sam Rayburn last fall.

Moss, 49, is now serving his tenth year in Congress. A native of Sacramento, he is chairman of the House Freedom of Information Subcommittee and a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

Population Record

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Population of the City of Los Angeles climbed to a record 2,522,600 Jan. 1, with most of a 73,585 increase since the 1960 census coming in the San Fernando Valley.

DIMES MARCH POSTER CHILD IS RETIRING

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus' Linda Breese is retiring as national poster child for the National Foundation March of Dimes. She has met the president of the United States and all her favorite cowboy stars.

But much more than that, Linda can now walk unaided.

She was born with an opening in her spinal column. At 9 months, doctors discovered that Linda had water on the brain. Every three months she goes to the Birth Defects Study Center at Children's Hospital. Doctors say Linda, now 5, has far exceeded expectations.

As for the future, Linda hasn't quite decided. "I think I'm going to be a nurse," she said.

Marin City Events

The Marin City Community Services District board have decided to post a regular calendar of events of Marin City activities outside the community lounge. The calendar will be posted monthly, starting in February under direction of Mrs. Robert Fisher.

9 Assemblymen Collect Funds For Funeral

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Nine state assemblymen collected a total of $745.25 in expenses and travel allowances to attend the funeral of one of their colleagues.

Assemblyman W. A. (Jimmie) Hicks (D-Sacremanto) died late in December.

Three assemblymen, Augustus F. Hawkins, Jesse M. Unruh, and Charles Hi Wilson, all Democrats from Los Angeles, collected $121.25 each to attend the funeral.

Other assemblymen who collected expenses and travel money for the last rites included Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) $45.50; Jerome R. Waldie (D-Antioch) $40.25; John T. Knox (D-Richmond) $43.25; and Phillip Burton (D-San Francisco) $25.

Little Theater Calls For Aid On 'Two For Sea-Saw'

The Sausalito Little Theater today put out a call for help from citizens in helping furnish its sets for "Two for the See-Saw," opening Feb. 2.

A wistful plea from property manager Mrs. Barbara Gifford said:

"If you have a dressmaker's dummy, divorce papers, bed pan, gold pencil sharpener or Degas painting, please DON'T send them to us. But if you have such ordinary items as a chest of drawers, bookcase, man's leather suitcase, portable typewriter or brief case, the Little Theater needs these articles badly."

She asks that anyone who can loan the needed items call her at her home.

Maj. Philip Hiaring of 95 Suffield Avenue, San Anselmo, will work with students at Sir Francis Drake High School and San Rafael Military Academy.

Maj. Frank A. Saunders of 71 Elena Circle, Terra Linda, has been assigned to students at Terra Linda and Novato High Schools.

Assistant Demo Whip Californian

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Democratic leadership has named Rep. John E. Moss of California to the post of assistant party whip.

The appointment of Moss filled the formal roster of Democratic leaders in the House following the death of Speaker Sam Rayburn last fall.

Population Record

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Population of the City of Los Angeles climbed to a record 2,522,600 Jan. 1, with most of a 73,585 increase since the 1960 census coming in the San Fernando Valley.

DIMES MARCH POSTER CHILD IS RETIRING

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus' Linda Breese is retiring as national poster child for the National Foundation March of Dimes. She has met the president of the United States and all her favorite cowboy stars.

But much more than that, Linda can now walk unaided.

She was born with an opening in her spinal column. At 9 months, doctors discovered that Linda had water on the brain. Every three months she goes to the Birth Defects Study Center at Children's Hospital. Doctors say Linda, now 5, has far exceeded expectations.

As for the future, Linda hasn't quite decided. "I think I'm going to be a nurse," she said.

Marin City Events

The Marin City Community Services District board have decided to post a regular calendar of events of Marin City activities outside the community lounge. The calendar will be posted monthly, starting in February under direction of Mrs. Robert Fisher.

9 Assemblymen Collect Funds For Funeral

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Nine state assemblymen collected a total of $745.25 in expenses and travel allowances to attend the funeral of one of their colleagues.

Three assemblymen, Augustus F. Hawkins, Jesse M. Unruh, and Charles Hi Wilson, all Democrats from Los Angeles, collected $121.25 each to attend the funeral.

Other assemblymen who collected expenses and travel money for the last rites included Robert W. Crown (D-Alameda) $45.50; Jerome R. Waldie (D-Antioch) $40.25; John T. Knox (D-Richmond) $43.25; and Phillip Burton (D-San Francisco) $25.

Little Theater Calls For Aid On 'Two For Sea-Saw'

The Sausalito Little Theater today put out a call for help from citizens in helping furnish its sets for "Two for the See-Saw," opening Feb. 2.

A wistful plea from property manager Mrs. Barbara Gifford said:

"If you have a dressmaker's dummy, divorce papers, bed pan, gold pencil sharpener or Degas painting, please DON'T send them to us. But if you have such ordinary items as a chest of drawers, bookcase, man's leather suitcase, portable typewriter or brief case, the Little Theater needs these articles badly."

She asks that anyone who can loan the needed items call her at her home.

Phone Bids Opened

Bids for an addition to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Central office at Inverness have been opened but contract announcement probably will not be made for about a week, a company spokesman said today.

THE MARIN ASSOCIATION OF LIFE UNDERWRITERS is a member of The National Association of Life Underwriters (NALU), the professional organization of life underwriters in the United States.

Founded in 1890 by 14 widely-scattered local underwriter groups, NALU today comprises a far-flung network of more than 80,000 life underwriters in 800 local associations.

NALU's guiding principles, code of ethics, and program of action are designed to guarantee YOU, the client:

- Protection from misrepresentation and other unethical practices. Association members pledge to adhere to the highest standards of business and professional conduct.
- A continuing program of training and education for the life underwriter to help him become better qualified to help YOU set up adequate thrift and protection programs through life insurance for YOU and YOUR FAMILY.
- Legislative activities at local, state, and national levels that initiate and support life insurance legislation in the interest of the policy-holding public.
